KITCHENER CALLS

Simcoe Reluctantly Releases Able Pastor to Accept New Post

Simcoe March 12 .- (From our own correspondent)-Citizens will learn with regret that Rev. J. H. McBain, B.A., will, subject to the stationing committee, leave Simcoe at the end of the present conference year. The esteemed pastor of St. James Methodist Church, received yesterday a telegram inviting him yesterday a telegram inviting him to the pastorate of Trinity Methodist church, Kitchener, and the terms were such that when the matter was laid before the Quarterly Board at a meeting held last night nothing but selfishness on the part of the selfishness on the selfishness on the selfishness on the selfishness of the selfi but selfishness on the part of the Board would have prompted any other action than to release Kev. McBain, though with deep regret.

Rev. McBain is now in his secon year as pastor here. He came from Neglected To Affix War Tillsonburg, where he was stationed four years. He was in Welland four years and goes to preach anniversary services there on Sunday next. He has had all the honours in the gift of the Hamilton conference, having been president in 1915-16, and is at present chairman of Sim-

Guaranteed Colors

In these days of spurious dyes and cotton mixtures in men's suitings, it to know that FIRTH BROS., the live wire tailors, have this week placed in stock $10,000.00 worth of All Wool goods in absolutely fast dyes. These are to be sold at two years ago prices. They were bought for delivery eighteen months ago and have just come to hand. And a finer lot of worthy, warranted, well bred woolens were never shown in Brantford. FIRTH BROS, have gained the reputation "PROVEN VALUE GIVERS" and now that an opportunity presents itself to further sustain that reputation they are offering these suitings at prices less than wholesale. Remember the world faces a wool famine. This is a fair warning to stock up with two or three suits and save $10 to $15 on every order.
