

FIGHT WHENEVER PEACE IN DANGER

Proposal Put Up in United States Senate.

In Difference Over League of Nations.

Washington report: The Senate fight over the League of Nations was brought to a more direct issue today with the introduction of a resolution by Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, proposing that the Senate give formal notice to the Peace Conference of opposition to be enacted should the peace treaty be submitted for ratification in its present form.

Senator Knox, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee and former Secretary of State drafted the resolution after conferences with other League opponents, and presented it with the apparent support of those who have led in criticism of the League covenant. He expected to crystallize opposition sentiment as did Senator Lodge, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, with the circulation of the round robin in the closing hours of the last Senate.

While declaring for immediate conclusion of a treaty dealing with direct issues of the war only, the resolution contains a far-reaching proposal which would lay it down as a policy of the American Government that whenever the freedom and peace of Europe is threatened, the United States will consider it obligatory to again co-operate in the removal of that menace.

Decision as to the acceptance of membership in the League of Nations should be left without prejudice to each nation, the resolution declares, for future separate consideration. It also asserts the lack of authority by the treaty-making power of the Government to make a treaty which in effect amends the American constitution.

An Oil of Merit—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the curative qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

FRANKNESS.

"What do you know of international affairs?"
"Nothing, but that doesn't keep me from discussing them as though I knew all about them."

A Cure for Fever and Ague.—Disturbance of the stomach and liver always precede attacks of fever and ague, showing derangement of the digestive organs and deterioration in the quality of the blood. In these ailments Parmelee's Vegetable Pills have been found most effective, abating the fever and subduing the ague in a few days. There are many who are subject to these distressing disturbances and to these there is no better preparation procurable as a means of relief.

HUNGARY OBEYS ALLY WARNINGS

Will Stop the Fighting With the Czechs.

Bela Kun May Come to Paris Himself.

London cable says: Bela Kun, the Hungarian Communist Foreign Minister, in reply to a message from Premier Clemenceau, according to a wireless despatch from Budapest, agrees to stop hostilities with the Czech-Slovaks, although he claims the Czechs are to blame for the fighting, because they disregarded the frontier fixed by the allies.

The Hungarian leader suggests that a commission be appointed to settle the differences between the Czechs and the Hungarians.

Bela Kun also expressed satisfaction that the allies have invited Hungary to the Peace Conference.

The Soviet Foreign Minister declares the Hungarian Soviet Government desires to live at peace and in friendship with the whole world; that it has always respected the demarcation lines fixed by the allies and only restored to arms when the Czech-Slovaks, violating the military convention of November 13, invaded Hungarian territory.

"We note with satisfaction," says Bela Kun, "that the allies instructed Czech-Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia and Roumania to cease their attacks against us, but we must record that the above-mentioned states disobeyed the allies' orders, and that their offensive has only been stopped by our counter-offensive, and that their troops are still beyond the demarcation line 12." The reply of Bela Kun concludes by agreeing to cease hostilities. It suggests that all the States mentioned should send delegates to Vienna, and that a commission should be appointed to bring about a just and equitable understanding between them.

Bela Kun, according to an Innsbruck despatch, in reply to M. Clemenceau's note, "accepts the Allied invitation to visit Paris, in order to explain conditions in Hungary."

Bela Kun, it is added, will shortly appoint a delegation which probably will be headed by himself.

Violent fighting, it is declared, continues between the Hungarians and Czech-Slovaks, on the Save River and elsewhere.

The whole of the conventions will be held during this month, commencing at Wolseley for the Qu'Appelle constituency, and terminating with a double convention on Saturday, June 28, at Rosetown and Regina.

CAN'T DISRUPT SOUTH AFRICA

Lloyd George's Answer to the Nationalists.

Has Great Future in the League.

London cable says: Great Britain cannot take any action which would mean the disruption of the Union of South Africa. This, in effect, was the answer given to the deputation of the Nationalist party of South Africa by Premier Lloyd George in Paris on June 5.

The Premier received the deputation, which included General J. B. M. Hertzog and Judge F. W. Reitz, the former President of the Orange Free State. It was explained that the chief object of the Nationalist party was to obtain restitution of the national status of the South African republics existing before the Boer war.

Mr. Lloyd George, in his reply, said that the South African Union was based on a fundamental agreement between the British and Dutch elements, and could not be dissolved by one element without the consent of the other. Great Britain therefore was unable to take any action which meant the disruption of the union.

In his statement of the case Gen. Hertzog said that the deputation represented the old populations of the Transvaal and Orange Free State. They were actuated by no race antagonism, but were determined by constitutional means to press their claims for independence.

The Premier made the point that the deputation did not claim to speak for the whole people of the Union, nor even for the whole populations of the Transvaal and Orange Free State. He was unable to see how the British Government or the Imperial Parliament could reopen the great settlement forged out in the heat and trials of the last 20 years merely on account of differences between various sections of the South African people themselves.

The principle of self-determination, added the Premier, had been given effect by the people of South Africa in the fullest, freest and most solemn manner, and to consent to any disruption of the Union would ruin South Africa. He pointed out how dangerous and, in fact, impossible it was to recognize mere sectional choice, whether of Dutchmen, natives or the English-speaking peoples without reference to the will of the whole.

Referring to the great place the South African Union occupied in the world, Mr. Lloyd George said that in the League of Nations it would have the same membership and status as, and far more influence than, any of the other states outside the few great powers, and he advised the South Africans as a friend not to endeavor to undo the past, but look forward confidently to the great future.

When the South African delegation was in London and sent a request to Premier Lloyd George for a hearing on the subject of the independence of the union, it was understood the British Government would be guided in dealing with this question by the advice of Gen. Louis Botha, the South African Premier, and his colleagues.

The use of Miller's Worm Powders insures healthy children so far as the ailments attributable to worms are concerned. A high mortality among children is traceable to worms. These sap the strength of infants so that they are unable to maintain the battle for life and succumb to weakness. This preparation gives promise of health and keeps it.

NO MARTYR ROLE FOR EX-EMPEROR

Wilhelm Will Not Volunteer to Surrender.

Rejects Scheme of His Followers.

Berlin cable: Former Emperor William declines voluntarily to offer himself as a sacrifice for the sins of Germany. The ex-Kaiser did not encourage the plan conceived in a circle of his personal friends here to relieve Holland of the question of his delivery and at the same time do something for his own reputation by boldly offering to stand trial before a neutral high court.

The person who went to Amerongen on that alleged mission and whose identity cannot be disclosed has returned with a report that his mission was unsuccessful. He is said to have found the ex-Kaiser so optimistic that nothing could happen to him, and aside from that in such a nervous condition, that he was unable to put the idea over.

The idea has not been abandoned entirely, but it is said the originators of the scheme are very sceptical.

The plan was for the ex-Kaiser to call upon the heads of two neutral Governments to create a high court made up of European neutrals, before which he was voluntarily to place himself on trial to answer the charges made against him by the allies.

It was believed this plan would be welcomed by the allies as a way out of a difficult problem not only for them but for Holland as well. It was further believed that the idea would appeal to Wilhelm's sense of the dramatic to offer himself as a sacrifice for which is being visited upon his people. The small monarchial circle that initiated the plan is keenly disappointed, as it had hoped it would revive the monarchial spirit in Germany, which admittedly is all but killed out by the manner in which the ex-Kaiser left.

After 10 Years of Asthma Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy proved the only relief for one grateful user, and this is but one cure among many. Little wonder that it has now become the one recognized remedy on the market. It has earned its fame by its never failing effectiveness. It is earning it today, as it has done for years. It is the greatest asthma specific within the reach of suffering humanity.
