Mr. Frank Huntington upon his leaving Bridgewater this week to take up his duties in the "Advertiser Office" was the recipient of many good wishes from his friends there and regrets at his departure. The members of the Quarterly Board of the Methodist Church presented him with gold sleeve links and a fountain pen as a slight token of their regard for him and his work on the Board for two years.

Essence of lemon is one of the ingredients which is being too freely used in and about Kentville. Merchants were warned about its sale but the sale continued. On Thursday morning Stipendiary Webster fined a merchant $50.00 and costs, the evidence showing that the accused sold a quantity of essence of lemon to one person which intoxicated him. The fine imposed of $50.00 and costs was promptly paid. This is a warning to all to be careful that the sale of this essence is not for drinking purposes.
