ALL EYES ON WILSON.

All eyes in Washington are on the President. Upon him alone, Secretary Lansing admitted to-night, rests the decision whether the troops are to stay or to come out. The evidence of Mrs. Verne, the widow of the murdered man, to the effect that she saw Legato at hr front door short-ly before midnight with a shotgun in Ms hands, and that he enquired on that oc-casion for her husband, hore all the ear-marks of truth. Other witnesses tea-tified that there had been a quarrel earl-ier in the evening, when Verne slapped Legato's face, and the latter had made a threat that some person would be wearing black before morning. Evi-dence was also presented to show that Legato's shotgun had disappeared from his room since the day before, and the shot and wads found in the remains of the murdered found by the police in Le-gato's trunk. The fact that the prisonor had run away directly after the murder also had much to do with fixing the crime on Legato. The defence coursel, Mr. C. L. ### CASUALTIES ON BOTH SIDES.

Ef Paso, April 13 .- First actual entrance of United States troops in force into a Mexican town resulted in an open clash of arms and bloodshed on both sides. The trouble occurred at Porral, a mining camp southeast of Chihuahua City, and one United States soldier was killed and several wounded. Mexicans precipitated the wounded. Mexicans precipitated the trouble by opening fire on the Amer-icans as they were withdrawing from icans as they were withdrawing from the city. The Americans returned the fire. The Carranza soldiers forming the garrison did not partici-pate, but used their best efforts to calm their own people and restore order, according to reports from Carranza sources.

The clash took place on Tuesday, as the details from General Obregon, Minister of War in the Carranza Cabinet, reached here this afternoon were sent under Tuesday's date from Queretaro, the temporary capital, and Consul Garcia, to whom the message was addressed, surmises that the message was filed late Tuesday night after receipt of the news from Parral. The despatch says the trouble occurred "at one o'clock in the afternoon."
