CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY'S

The little boy who was sent by the local Children's Aid Society some eight months ago to the Hospital for Seck Children, College street, Toronto, for treatment for badly twisted feet, has returned completely cured.

The officers of the local society had a rather exciting experience on the occasion of the boy's return. The little fellow being only six or seven years old was to be put in charge of the C. P. R. conductor at Toronto. When the train reached Chatham there was no boy, and the conductor knew nothing of him. A telegram to the hospital authorities clicited the reply that the boy was put in charge of the C. P. R. conductor leaving Toronto a. 7.55 that morning. Where then was the boy 'He might be anywhere between Toronto and Detroit. A telephone call on the G. T. R. station fa led to locate him there. After sundry telegrams and telephone messages had been sent and received it. tion fa led to locate him there. After sundry telegrams and telephone messages had been sent and received, it was learned that he had been put on the G. T. R. train by mistake, and arriving at Chatham had been driven home in a cab by some kind friend. The fact that the Hospital for Sick Children charges nothing for the expert treatment that is required, if the parents are not able to pay, should be remembered by the citizens of Chatham when an opportunity to contribute is afforded them. This little chap who, had it not been for this timely treatment, would have been timely treatment, would have been a cripple all his life, will soon have the full use of his limbs and feet.

Explosion Explained.

Toronto, Sept. 16.-The men injured in the Sunnyside explosion are all doing well. After a careful inspec-tion by insurance and engineering ex-perts yesterday, it was declared that low water in the boiler caused the low water in the boiler caused the explosion. There were signs to show that only 14 inches of water was in the boiler and the plates between the water and brickwork were red hot. The valve below the water column had been shut off, thus deceiving the engineer. The plates held so well that they were pulled to an edge as sharp as a knife before giving away.
