Bank of Hamilton and Federal Life Want Big Reduction.

City Engineer Insists on New Bricks at Main and James.

Much Short Weight Butter on Market, Says Dr. Roberts.

The time for filing assessment appeals expired yesterday, and the department announced this morning that the total number received was 468. This, while Mrs. considerably in excess of last year, is not as high as in many previous years, when the appeals sometimes totalied over a thousand. The officials say that only important appeals are those of the Federal Life and Bank of Pamilton each of which asks for a substantial reduction. Many of the others are owreduction. Many of the others the ow-ing to clerical errors and mistakes in names. The largest number of appeals is from Ward 4, which filed 20. Ward 1 is lowest with 41. The other wards filed appeals as follows: Ward 2, 91, Ward 9, 95; Ward 9, 99; Ward 9, 79, and Ward

Than man Quinn, of the Board of Health, lays he has been miormed that the models are put on the loaf by being laid on the bottom of the pan before the oriend is pasked. "I am not so particular would the label as I am about the weight of the order," said Dr. Roberts.

The city is exercising a careful watch over the work at the corner of Main and James street. This morning Engineer Headie gave the City Engineer a tip that the Brantford & Hamilton Company was going to use the oid scorna blocks at the crossing. (Mr. Barrow hurried to the scene and instructed the foreman in charge that none of the old blocks were to be used. He insisted on new bricks.

Roberts, Medical Health Officer, said this morning that he was convinced that a great dear of short weight butter being sold on the Hamilton market, and he has instructed the officials of the department to exercise a rigorous watch and prosecute all offenders. City Engineer Barrow this morning received the report of Foreman Towers, who made an inspection of the street cars to see what had been done to comply with the Railway Board's order. Ar. ## WHAT HAMILTON ESCAPED.

Hamilton was threatened with a strike to-day which, had it occurred, would have made some of the labor troubles of the past look like a plugged nickel. The telegraph message boys of the G. N. W. talked of quitting. The threatened trouble was over the discharge of one of their number. When one of the "walking delegates" was asked why the strike was not pulled off, he replied, "De fellers wouldn't stick."
