HOOLIGANISM
According to the Chatham "World" of Saturday, 14th inst. Hooliganism is rampant in Chatham. At least, the "World" says it was, on the evening of the Red Cross Pageant. In a very pronounced manner the "World" rebukes the hooligans and also the audience and those in authority, for not putting a stop to the unseemly behaviour of those responsible for the interruptions, during Mrs. Kuhring's address. It is not by any means a pleasant undertaking for a newspaper to publish such a denunciation of conditions in their own town as the "World" has done in this case, but it is gratifying to know that the press has the courage of its convictions and does not hesitate in speaking plainly whether it hurts or not. While the doing of such speaks well for the press, it by no means speaks well of the conditions prevailing in the sister town, and throws a bad impression to outside parts of the province.
The same Red Cross Pageant was shown in Newcastle the night following the Chatham presentation, and the attention given by the audience throughout the whole evening was in marked contrast to that of Chatham, as depicted and alleged by the "World".
The "World" has not only drawn the people's attention to the condition of affairs, but has also given a remedy for same, which if acted upon would no doubt have the desired effect and rid Chatham of such hooliganism, which the "World" says has disgraced the community. To eliminate such undesirable rowdism as the "World" mentions would certainly be one of the first and best steps that Chatham could take, to boost their town.

NO MORE PUNCHEONS
The St. John Board of Trade has received a bulletin from the Canadian Railway Association notifying them that after December 31, 1924, the railways of Canada would refuse to accept molasses in puncheons and suggesting that barrels or tierces be used. They had found the puncheons too frail a container for the weight of the package and in consequence they were all the time receiving claims for damage, and had decided the only way to overcome the difficulty was to cut out carrying them.

Secret Skin Troubles
MEAN NIGHTS & DAYS OF ITCHING TORTURE.
A well-known physician says that he comes across many terrible cases of secret skin disease. Because there is a natural disinclination to seek advice, the sufferer either neglects the trouble in its early stages, or else aggravates it by use of some poisonous mineral ointment. Whilst this may hide up surface trouble, it also drives disease further into the skin.
You cannot thoroughly and permanently banish diseases like eczema, tetter, psoriasis, ringworm, etc., unless you first destroy all disease germs. Zam-Buk does this quickly and thoroughly.
Zam-Buk is unique in its germicidal and healing strength. Its soothing herbal essences penetrate into the skin right into the weakened and diseased inner tissues, killing the germs and uprooting disease at its very source.
The first dressing of Zam-Buk ends the dreadful itching and when all sore inflamed tissues have been thoroughly soothed and purified by Zam-Buk, every trace of disease is made to disappear, and there is a splendid new growth of clear healthy skin.

Zam-Buk
UPROOTS SKIN DISEASE
Don't endure skin torture a day longer! Get Zam-Buk today! Apply to the first itching spot, where you suspect use it for healing cuts, burns, scalds, ulcers and poisoned wounds; also for weakening, painful piles.
Zam-Buk is the only skin medicine that cures the most stubborn cases of eczema, psoriasis, ringworm, etc., and it does so without the use of any harsh or irritating chemicals.

Hooligan Display At Chatham Meeting

(Chatham World)
"Boost your town, don't knock it" has degenerated from a slogan to an unmeaning fetish if the reports which we have received of the Red Cross entertainment of Thursday evening are correct, and we believe they are as our informants are trustworthy and reliable. * * * When we consider the highly desirable and philanthropic objects which are set as the motives of the Red Cross activities, when we visualize the station and character of the lady—a stranger to our town—who delivered the address on the matter pertaining to the methods and work of this grand organization, it makes one's gorge rise to think there was not one bipped in the shape of a man to stand up in the audience and demand that such dastardly and cowardly tactics should at once cease. As a matter of fact it seems that during Mrs. Kuhring's address a group of young blackguards in the gallery kept up a continuous round of interruptions, even going to the limit of calling upon the lady-lecturer to "shut up and sit down" and at all times making a great deal of noise for lecturer and audience alike.
During all this exhibition of home, school and civic training there was not one appeal made by anyone not even by our hard-worked police force, to accord the lady who was addressing the commonest courtesy of silence.
It is about time that such unseemly behaviour was put a stop to, and in the name of decent citizenship we call upon Mayor Mersereau and all those in authority to take steps to this end.

BRITISH PRESS UNABLE TO DEFINE PREMIER'S STAND

London, Oct. 15.—First commentators on the speech of Premier Lloyd George in Manchester yesterday writing in the Sunday morning papers, after strenuous efforts to read between lines and to discover what the Premier had in mind as to his personal political position, and his refusal to accept the speech as an answer to the various charges laid against the government of mismanage-

Pangs Of Neuralgia This Painful Trouble is Due to Poverty of the Blood

Neuralgia is one of the most painful maladies that afflicts humanity. The trouble is usually seated in the face or head, following the course of some nerve, but it attacks other parts of the body as well. It is characterized by acute pains, sometimes steady, at other spasmodic and darting. But whatever course it takes the pain is agonizing and almost unbearable. Medical authorities agree that neuralgia is due to poverty of the blood—that the nerves are actually being starved. It is further agreed that if the blood is purified and enriched the trouble will disappear. It is for this reason that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been so successful in treating neuralgia. They enrich the blood which feeds the starved, aching nerves and thus bring relief to the sufferer, whose general health is also improved. Proof of the value of these pills in cases of this kind is given by Mrs. M. Brown, R. R. No. 1, Warsaw, Ont. who says: "I have taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can recommend them as being the best medicine I know of for neuralgia. Two years ago I had an attack of this trouble in the neck and shoulder. The repeated attacks of the pain were of such frightful intensity that my life was almost unbearable. I consulted two doctors and took their medicine but without relief. I had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills years ago, when they helped me wonderfully, and I decided to try them again. Before I had taken more than a half dozen boxes the pain had disappeared, and I have since enjoyed the best of health, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."
You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ing affairs of state, especially of the Near East problem.

The Sunday Times declares that the speech means nothing if not an early general election. Although the Premier did not indicate any date for an election, the paper expresses the opinion that the present parliament which stands prorogued until November 14 will not meet again and that its dissolution will be announced early this week. In that event the journal believes the elections will be early in November and the new parliament assembled in the course of a few months. This view is shared also by The Observer which sees in the speech an unmistakable appeal to the Liberals. At the same time, the paper declares there was no "casting of the die, no Caesarian gesture," and that the address has left the Premier free to take any one of several different courses. The paper considers that Lloyd George's utterances in part, look as though he has determined to resign and hand over the government to the Unionists. The Observer admits that the Manchester speech lost no friends for Lloyd George and thinks that it may regain many for him. If he quits now, it will mark the beginning of his recovery of power, the paper thinks.

The Observer's editor, J. L. Garvin, in a four column spread declares that his recent articles attacking the government's Near Eastern policy have not been an indictment of Lloyd George personally but of the system, and that it was neither intended nor implied in an article published a week ago. Garvin holds, nevertheless, that "there is no spot on the world's map where we can call our foreign policy successful," and that the spending of twenty to thirty million pounds sterling in mishandling the Near East problem is "one of the sublime jokes of history."

London, Oct. 15.—The Times in an analysis of the speeches of Premier Lloyd George and Mr. Chamberlain says they should be read in conjunction and points out that while Mr. Chamberlain appealed mainly to the Unionists and solemnly warned them that any revolt against the Prime Minister would be a heavy responsibility likely to result in the eventual accession of a labor ministry, Mr. Lloyd George appeals more to the Liberals, but held out a hand to the men of the parties who were neither reactionaries nor revolutionaries. By implication the Premier told the Conservatives that if they wish to remain in alliance with him they must subdue the revolt in their own party.

A DAY WITHOUT MUSIC

The city council of Portland, Ore., has decreed that Wednesday, Nov. 4 shall be a day without music. Not that the Portland officials have any objection to music, or any marked antipathy to particular instruments or performers. Quite the contrary. They desire to promote the love of music by demonstrating what a dreary world this would be, for even a single day, without it.
"No music day" is merely a part of "music week."
Presumably the demonstration will be impressive. The unwanted silence of the hurdy gurdy and of the neighbor's alleged phonograph will cause each Portlander to reflect upon how meaningless life would be if those customary delights were abolished. Likewise, the youthful student of the piano, forbidden for a day to play his scales and exercises, will no doubt, despite his suffering for the time being, emerge a more devoted admirer of practicing than he has ever thought of being.

CONSIGNMENT OF SALMON SEIZED

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 13.—Following the close of the salmon fishing season, fishery officials on the north shore of New Brunswick have been engaged in attempts to trace large quantities of salmon that have been taken illegally and shipped in wholesale quantities to various dealers throughout the province. The evidence which has already been gathered by the officials investigating points to wholesale operations along the Miramichi river.

Already two large consignments of salmon have been seized and every effort is being made to trace the shippers in these cases. A shipment is reported as having been made recently from districts along the Miramichi in which the fish have been packed in pork barrels and shipped under pork labels.

A large consignment, which was seized in St. John, is said to have contained almost two tons of fish, while a local seizure made here resulted in over one hundred pounds being taken.
Very few cases of fishery violations have been reported along the St. John River district recently. Low water in the river has caused a cessation in the movements of fish in the river
for the present.
