In the Police Court, yesterday, four men, George, James, and William King and Joseph Butt, were each fined $1.00 for having fished for salmon with nets in the Pond at Salmon Cove, contrary to law.

The importance of imparting military instruction to pupils in high schools has been recognized by the Dominion Government, and it is their intention to have 75 companies of 35 boys each, 35 companies to be in Ontario, 25 in Quebec, and 15 in the Maritime Provinces, arms to be furnished by the Government.

The registrar for a western district in Ireland lately registered the death of an old man at the extraordinary age of 106, who leaves a daughter only 15 years old. The registrar says the facts are "quite correct."

At a legal investigation of a liquor seizure the Judge asked an unwilling witness: "What was in the barrel you had?" The reply was: "Well your honor, it was marked 'whisky' on one end of the barrel and 'Pat Duffy' on the other end, so that I can't say whether it was whiskey or Pat Duffy was in the barrel, being as I am on oath."

Since our last advice nothing worthy of note has been done in the fishery of this Bay, we did hope to see some good work from the squid bait, but unfortunately such has not been the case, the squid having since struck in and without any good result therefrom.

The Bankers still continue moving around in search of bait, and during the last week past some forty to fifty of them have visited here and Mosquito, and still they come, but they are finding it difficult to procure the desired supply as the squids are not at all plentiful, in fact they are very scarce compared with the quantities taken here last year.

The Ex-Empress Eugenie has written to the Countess deMontijo, her mother, that after the funeral of the Prince Imperial she will spend a few months in the convent near Burgos.

Religious News.

His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. M. Gettigan, Archbishop of Armagh; the most Rev. Dr. Keily, Bishop of Derry; and the Most Rev. Dr. Morgan, Bishop of Ossory had the honor of a rare audience with his Holiness the Pope on Corpus Christi, and their Lordships left Rome on their return journey, on Monday. The dignity of the Marquisate was conferred on Denis J. Oliver, of San Francisco, (who is a Go way gentleman), at the instance of the Irish prelates.

An interesting ceremony was on Sunday performed in Marlborough street Cathedral, when the Most Rev. Dr. Woodlock, Bishop of Ardagh, as delegate of Pope Leo X. I., invested the Archbishop of Dublin with a Pallium.

The fish Catholic school established in the world was that founded in Rome about the year 140 by St. Justin.

The Wesleyan Conference of New Zealand reports 150 churches, 116 preaching places, 203 local preachers, 149 leaders, 3,190 members, 433 probationers, 494 catechists, and 139 Sunday schools with 11,147 scholars. The average attendance at public worship during the year was 29,540.

The contribution of Peter's pence for the first half of the present year increased £23,000, compared with the corresponding period of 1878.

Since the change of Government the Corpus Christi procession in St. Peter's, Rome, has merely made the circuit of the church inside, but this year the Holy Father gave permission for it to pass out into the atrium, which was hung with crimson satin damask, as was also the interior of the church. The procession was identically the same as on all previous years since 1870. As it passed through the atrium nearly every one knelt and behaved with greatest reverence. On the steps, however, of the central doorway was a little group of three or four persons, who were behaving badly, keeping their hats on and laughing and talking. Just as the Blessed Sacrament had passed, one of the party was seized with an epileptic fit and fell to the ground. Several people hastened to assist him: his face was livid and his convulsions terrible to witness. He was carried off in this condition to the hospital. At a quarter to six in the evening grand vespers were sung in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, and benediction given. Vast crowds attended in the morning and evening.

The burden which was thoughtlessly taken up must be patiently borne.

It is easy to pick holes in other people's work, but it is far more profitable to do better work yourself.

The tie that binds the happy man may be dear, but that which links the unfortunate is tenderness unutterable.

No man can safely govern that would not cheerfully become subject; no man can safely command that has not learned to obey.

Diogenes being asked, "The biting of which beast is the most dangerous?" answered, "If you mean wild beasts, 'tis the slanderer; if tame ones, the flatterer."

All the good things of this world are no farther good to us than as they are of use, and what ever we may heap up to give others, we enjoy only as much as we can use and no more.

"There are people who live behind the hill," is an old German proverb, which means that there are other folks in the world besides yourself, although you may not see them.

The world is crazy for show. There is not one perhaps in a thousand who dares fall back on his real, simple self for power to get through the world and enjoyment as he goes along.

Persons who like to contemplate their own importance should consider that the world got along very well before they were born, and will probably get along equally as well after they are dead.

He who looks on beauty with a pure affection forgets the loveliness of the body in that of the soul, and rises by means of that great earthly beauty to the great artist, to the very essence of loveliness.

It is a mistake to expect to receive welcome hospitality words of cheer, and help over ragged and difficult passes in life in return for cold selfishness which cares for nothing in the world but self.

To be envious is to punish ourselves for being inferior to our neighbors—If, instead of looking at what our superiors possess we could be much less envious in the world, and more pity.

Don't ask favors if you can avoid it, not even from your nearest and dearest friends. Give as many as you can and, if any are freely offered, it is not necessary to be too proud to take them; but never ask for, or stand waiting for any.

THE LAND OF MIDIAN.—Before we leave Asia, on our way to turning Africa we may stay for a moment on the coast of Arabia in "the land of Midian." Among recent discoveries none will be more interesting to the Biblical student than Captain Burton's researches in the land of Midian. It will be remembered that they were Midianite merchants who bought Joseph and sold him in Egypt and that it was to Midian that Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and that there he married the daughter of Jethro. Midian has no place in our atlases; it is not to be found even in Keith Johnston's Royal Atlas, though its place is assigned in his map of the Bible countries. It extends from Akaba (N. lat. 29° 28') on the Gulf of Akaba, to Moilah (N. lat. 27° 40') on the Red Sea, having a seaboard of about 300 miles. Captain Burton says that the land of Midian had various degrees of extension in different epochs. This territory though in Arabia, is held by the Khe-tive, who garrisons all the seaboard forts that protect the pilgrim highways from Suez to Mecca and Medina further down the coast.

Captain Burton explored this district in the first months of 1878, being employed, and provided with everything, by the Khedive. On the 27th November he read a long and interesting paper, on the result of his four months' tour, before the Society of Arts. The journey covered 2500 miles. He brought back twenty-five tons of ores of gold, silver, copper, tin, lead, and discovered turquoise mines, and immense deposits of gypsum, saltpetre, and rock-salt. Captain Burton is sanguine that great wealth will accrue to the Khedive and to any company that can be induced to embark in working the mines of Midian. Where the nations of the Old Testament found great wealth, he thinks it will be possible for us, with our improved means of working, to find much greater. Captain Burton returns to prosecute his work next February, and we heartily wish him success.

CAUTION.

The PILLS Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach Kidneys and Bowls, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females. The OINTMENT is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores, and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism, and all Skin Diseases it is no equal.

BEWARE OF AMERICAN COUNTERFEITS.

I most respectfully take leave to call the attention of the Public generally to the fact, that certain Houses in New York are sending to many parts of the globe SPURIOUS IMITATIONS of my Pills and Ointment. These frauds bears on their labels some address in New York.

I do not allow my medicines to be sold in any part of the United States. I have no Agents there. My Medicines are only made by me, at 555 Oxford Street London.

In the books of directions affixed to the spurious make is a caution, warning the Public against being deceived by counterfeiters. Do not be misled by this audacious trick, as they are the counterfeiters they pretend to denounce.

These counterfeiters are purchased by unprincipled Vendors at one half the price of my Pills and Ointment, and are sold to you as my genuine Medicines.

I most earnestly appeal to that sense of justice which I feel sure I may venture upon asking from all honorable persons, to assist me, and the Public, as far as may lie in their power, in denouncing this shameful Fraud.

Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines, bears the British Government Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, LONDON," engraved thereon. On the label is the address, 533, OXFORD STREET, LONDON, where alone they are Manufactured. Holloway's Pills and Ointment bearing any other address are counterfeiters.

The Trade Marks of these Medicines are registered in Ottawa. Hence, any one throughout the British Possessions, who may keep the American Counterfeits for sale, will be prosecuted.

Signed THOS HOLLOWAY, 533, Oxford Street, London.

THOMAS GOFF, TAILOR, CLOTHIER & OUTFITTER.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
