THE REALMS OF SPORT

FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

Guard footballers will hold their practice on the Ayre Athletic grounds at 7 o'clock to-night. Players are requested to meet at the end of the field.

ALL METTING B.L.S. ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

Annual meeting of the B. L. S. Athletic Association was held at the club, yesterday morning, and was very satisfactory. The reports for the year were very satisfactory. The senior football team had a record of 10 wins, 1 draw, and 1 loss in the games, as did the women. In the Regatta, the Juniors won the Football race. The team had been successful in the championship. Several were made to the successful team. This year the teams will be in the field and it is hoped forward strong aggregations. Practice will begin Monday. The election of officers was as follows:—

Chairman—Hon. W. J. Higginson.
E. J. Phalen.
Chairman—Gordon Halley.
Secretary—Alan Doyle.
Treasurer—H. J. Buckingham.

ATHLETE DROPS DEAD.

ANTONIO, May 4.—Darcy S. Smith, Toronto's best all round athlete, died Saturday from heart trouble, caused by privations suffered in camps in Germany during the war. Smith was prominent in many branches of sport, being a star in baseball, rugby and rowing.

HEAVYWEIGHT.

BRALO N. T., May 4.—Jimmy Macdonald, entered the heavyweights here to-night, knocking out MacDonald, of Butte, Monday in the third round of a scheduled six-round bout. Slattery scored three knock-downs before the knockout. The weights were: Slattery, 164 1-2; MacDonald 177.

VILLA TO RETURN TO THE U.S. ON JUNE 1.

World's Flyweight Champion Is Booked For Fight In California And May Meet Rosenberg.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Pancho Villa, and his flyweight title, will be back in the United States about June 1, but New York's chances for getting a glimpse of this crown early in the summer are very slight, for Villa is planning to stay on the Pacific Coast so that his entrance into Manhattan will not be made until July or August at the earliest. On May 7 Villa will board the S.S. President Jefferson.

which will deposit him in Seattle early in June.

The offers which crop in the meantime will govern his plans to a large extent, but the present programme which has been mapped out calls for several fights in California before he turns his ship in this direction. Villa always has been one of the best drawing cards in the game, but his absence evidently has caused the local promoters to overlook him when making up their programmes.

"There seems to be very little in view for Pancho this summer," said Frank Churchill, his manager, yesterday. "I have had several propositions on a match with Charley Phil Rosenberg, but so far no promoter has offered what I think Villa should draw down. I positively will not consider any short end, such as challengers have been getting in recent bouts, and unless I can get almost an even break on the money with Rosenberg there is not a chance of the match going through."

"Villa is a champion the same as Rosenberg and although his crown will not be hanging in the balance, I feel sure he will be just as important a factor at the gate as the bantamweight champion."

BERLENBACH WOULD BATTLE DEMPSEY.

Middleweight Star Believes He Has The Punch To Knockout World's Greatest Hitter.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Paul Berlenbach would like to get a shot at Jack Dempsey and the heavyweight title. The Astoria slugger told Tex Rickard about his ambition yesterday afternoon. And don't think for a minute that Tex laughed at Paul. Rickard just tapped away with his ever present stick, puffed on his ever present cigar and allowed as how the time might come when such a match would be feasible.

Rickard was talking over the cat-in-the-hat business in Texas with Jim Tarver, the 460-pound Texas who earns his bread and butter in the circus side show, when Berlenbach wandered in the room where the freaks were confined to see about getting some ring-side seats for the circus.

"Do you think you could knock this fellow out, Paul, said Tex, referring to the giant."

"I can knock out any man in the world, and that goes for Jack Dempsey the same as any one else," came back Paul.

This warlike speech caused the giant to remember that he had to make a telephone call. Tarver tried to squeeze himself into a nearby booth but could not make it, even after removing his five gallon hat. The giant stands eight feet four inches.

After Berlenbach had faded out of sight, Tarver came back and wanted to know who the belligerent person was.

"That's Paul Berlenbach, the fighter," explained Tex. "He hits as hard as a broncho kicks. He wouldn't be able to hit you on the chin, but he sure would play hob with your stomach if he ever let one go at you. "Some of you newspaper fellows don't seem to think so much of Berlenbach's fighting ability," went on Rickard, turning to the writer. "I think he is one of the best we have. I spotted Paul when he first came along and I've watched him closely every chance I got. I think he is a possible heavyweight champion. He can hit and he is learning more about the game every day. Maybe some day you'll have cause to remember the time you heard him say he could knock out Dempsey or any other man. I know Delaney knocked Paul out, but Paul was just a beginner then. Delaney won't find it so easy to turn the trick a second time."

Berlenbach's remark meant wanting to take a poke at Dempsey shows how boxers change after they have been in the business for a year or two. When Paul became the talk of the town because of his string of knock-outs winter before last it was next to impossible to drag a word out of him. The so-called Assassin would shut up as tight as a clam the moment anybody who looked like a newspaper man hove in sight. Now he can hold his own with any one in a gabbing contest.

Prize Day

ST. THOMAS'S SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Yesterday afternoon at Canon Wood Hall the prizes were distributed to the scholars of St. Thomas's Church Sunday School. Due to a variety of impediments, the distribution had been somewhat unduly delayed, but this fact in no way detracted from the enthusiasm and interest of the large gathering present, and it was noted that a greater number of visitors than usual attended. The whole programme was well arranged and carried out, and the singing of the children was the subject of general praise. A feature of the latter were the solos of Ruth Collier and Hubert Clark, who with their associates of the kindergarten class, did wonderfully well. The prizes were distributed by Mrs. J. B. Elliott, wife of the Rector, and this was performed with the grace and skill of an active worker for the Sunday Schools. Mrs. Elliott's short and inspiring address will not soon fade from the memory of the attentive listeners. A brief address from H. W. LeMessurier, C.M.G., a former Superintendent, was also much appreciated, and his assurance of continuing interest in the work of the schools made everybody happy. Appended is the list of prizewinners:—
