The MERCURY has a guaranteed circulation more than three times larger than that of any other paper published in Guelph, or in the County.

THE PROSPECTS.

Our exchanges, Metropolitan and Provincial, fairly bristle with indications of the forthcoming political struggle, and we must do our Reform conferees the justice of saying that they "buckle to their work" right manfully, and give no uncertain sound upon the questions at issue. Fully conscious of the great interests involved, and of the wary character of the foe with whom they have to deal, they are neither vain-gloriously boastful nor unnecessarily depressed, but relying upon the good sense of the masses, and the inherent strength of their just cause, they bring to the discussion of the merits of the opposing principles and candidates cheerful confidence in the ultimate result, and a strong...
