MICHAELIS MUST GO

Copenhagen, Oct. 13.-The German reichstag adjourned, leaving behind it a latent crisis which political observers believe will lead, sooner or later, to the retirement of Dr. Michaelis, the chancellor, without a following. Although other parties are less actively in opposition to Mr. Michealis than the Socialists, not a voice has been raises against the Vorwaert's slogan, "Michaelis must go."

Good Generalship Pays

Particularly at this time in The Albertan Automobile Contest. Back up your own previous good work.

Now-today and tomorrow, and every remaining day, for that matter is the time to do a little good generalship in the contest,

Every contestant in the list, when soliciting subscriptions, has been assured of support, if needed, at the close.

Sometimes these premises are made to put the candidate off, but usually the intention is to wait and see if the one soliciting makes good

Almost anybody interested in your success will risk a short-term subscription, and will be willing to increase it before the close of the contest. If you can't get a year, or two years, or three years, take all the short-termers you can get. When the second payment is made you will get as many votes as though the entire payment had been made at one time. But explain that where you lose out is in the club votes-the extra votes. While you get as many regular votes when a payment is made on the installment plan as though it were all paid at once, these additional payments count for extra votes the week the subscriptions are turned inand there is thus a great loss in extra votes for all these deferred payments.

The $18 extra vote clubs end tomorrow night—that's the last moment to secure 100,000 special ballots for this amount in subscriptions. The 100,000-vote ballots run one more week, but it will take $21 in subscriptions to get one, $42 for two, and so on. Get every single club you can on or before Tuesday.

Two-thirds of the time to work for the $50 special prize will have elapsed tomorrow evening. That leaves only one more week before the records of the contest office will be checked up and $50 in real cash handed to the candidate who exceeds in subscription collections for the three weeks ending one week from tomorrow. The amount will not be stated until after the close of the contest. This would not be fair to the winner. At the close of the contest, however, the winner's collections for the three weeks will be stated, and the relative standing of several of the nearest competitors given. It's not necessary to return voting certificates—simply send in your reports and have them counted for this fine special prize.

All newspaper coupons expire tomorrow. Candidates in districts 1 and may mail their last bunch tomorrow evening,
