

Every Bone

In my body ached with the dreadful Rheumatism which followed a severe cold. My sufferings were awful. I could not dress myself or comb my hair. My husband had to carry me up and down stairs. I was scarcely able to nurse my little one. Within two weeks after I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, I felt better. Shortly I was able to walk up and down stairs without help and finally I was cured. My friends thought I was going to be a cripple, but thanks to God for his blessing on Hood's Sarsaparilla, I now enjoy good health. MRS. JOHN BLACKBURN, Lower Five Islands, Nova Scotia.

CURLING.

CURLING FOR THE TANKARD.

The winning clubs in the various Western Ontario groups of curlers arrived in the city yesterday to play off the finals in the Western Ontario Tankard. The two city teams—Forest City and London—were in the field for the finals, and the visiting teams were from Wroxeter, Paris, St. Marys and Thamesville. Each team was represented by two rinks. The play commenced in the Simcoe Street Rink sharp at 1 o'clock on a magnificent sheet of ice. In the draw—Wroxeter, Forest City, St. Marys and Paris won the ice, and London and Thamesville were given the ice. The last two will play the winners of yesterday afternoon's matches—Wroxeter and Paris—this morning, and the two winners of the morning matches will play off for the tankard in the afternoon. The play consumed the whole of the afternoon and lasted until 7 o'clock in the evening. A large crowd of spectators watched the proceedings and took almost as much interest in the matches as the players themselves, although they were naturally cooler and not quite as excited. A number of ladies viewed the roarin' game from behind the office windows, and watched that none of their patent methods of using the broom were infringed by the men. The proceedings were a trifle mysterious to two young misses, and after watching a couple of ends they gave it up and concluded they would go.

"You know," one was explaining to the other as they left the rink, "I can understand them wanting to sweep the ice to make it nice and clean, but I don't see the object in shoving those spittoons from one end of the rink to the other."

"Yes," assented the other. "I don't like it a bit. I don't see why that old fellow always hollered for soup every time the other fellows started to sweep."

"I just think Charley put up a game on us when he told us it was interesting," added the first speaker. And the door banged after them.

The sight of the curlers on the ice certainly was a queer one to the uninitiated, but it had a great deal of attraction to those who knew the game. No curler seems too old or dignified to use the broom vigorously, and "scoop scoop" comes from every part of the rink. "Let her die!" somebody else shouts, and the sweepers desist. Nobody is killed, however, the intention only being to stop the progress of the stone.

Only to think of it! Forest City defeated by a little country club. How the spectators lamented it, and the players accounted for it. The "ifs" that were used after the game!

"They played a splendid game and earned their victory," said Mr. Strong. St. Marys lost by only two shots. It was simply a case of lack of judgment at a critical time, or the game would have been theirs instead of Paris'.

Perhaps the pleasantest portion of the day's programme was the "beef and greens" to which the London curlers treated their visiting brethren at the Tecumseh House after the work of the day was over. It was a very jolly evening; the Londoners were splendid entertainers and the strangers were capital fellows.

The game by rinks was as follows:

BEEF AND GREENS.
The visiting curlers were treated to "beef and greens" (Scottish for a curlers' feast).

banquet at the Tecumseh House after the match. The chair was occupied by Mr. Geo. A. Somerville, president of the London Club. He was supported on the right by Mr. Robt. Reid, sen., one of the founders of the London Curling Club, and probably the oldest curler in Ontario. Mr. Dan Regan occupied a seat on the president's right, while scattered among the visitors were Messrs. Maurel, W. T. Strong, J. W. McIntosh, R. J. Young, J. B. McKillop, Dan Dewar, G. H. Gillespie, Fred Henry, Bert McBride, Robt. Reid, jun., Robt. Henderson, Dr. Logie, Thos. A. Brown, Thos. Gillespie, Ald. J. W. Jones, Sam. Grieg, C. M. Andrews, Robt. Ferguson, M. P. P. Thamesville, responded to the toast of "The Royal Curler's Association," of which he is an ex-president. He made a very humorous speech and referred to the thing nearest to the heart of all present at that time—curling. He spoke of the game in Scotland and in Canada, and made everybody laugh with his witty stories.

Mr. Harry Baston sang "Then You Will Remember Me."

"Sister Clubs" brought replies from Messrs. Andrews, Moore and Robson (St. Marys) and Mr. Robinson (Wroxeter) and others. The visitors all praised London's hospitality, and while all disclaimed being public speakers, many wished they were in order that they could do honor to the occasion. They were all sorry that St. Marys had been defeated, and spoke well of their exceeding generosity in keeping the tankard in competition.

Mr. Wray, of Wroxeter, sang a Scotch dialect song entitled "Cronies of Mine," and Mr. W. J. McIntosh sang a couple of Irish songs. The gathering dispersed about midnight.

About 1,500 people attended the races and a good programme was decided.

NO RELIEF FROM CONGRESS.

Financial Schemes of the Government Voted Down.

Talk of Jobbery and of Impending the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—Another day's debate on the financial question but serves to emphasize the fact that no legislation affecting the financial situation is to be expected from the 53rd Congress. Today, by the decisive vote of 187 to 120 the House declined to authorize the issue of $55,000,000 three per cent gold bonds with which to replace the 3-4 per cent bonds syndicated in payment for the purchase of $5,000,000 of the joint resolutions for this purpose occupied all of the session of 6-2 hours, and the discussion attracted an attendance of spectators which overpowered the public galleries and encroached upon that reserved for the diplomatic corps and other distinguished visitors. The debate followed in a general way that of the Senate, but the opposition today was much more aggressive than on that occasion.

Mr. Hopkins asserted that the President was not animated by patriotic motives in sending his last message to Congress, but by a desire to unload upon that body the responsibility for a transaction, negotiated by his former law partner, that would net the syndicate represented by him $25,000,000. Mr. Bryan declared the scheme proposed in the joint resolution to be but another step in the accomplishment of the conspiracy to stockpile silver, and solemnly assured the House that so serious did he consider it to be that were there any probability of its passing, and the forfeiture of his life would prevent it, he would gladly lay down his life in the behalf.

Mr. Cannon (Republican, Illinois), hinted at an impeachment, and Mr. Hepburn (Republican, Iowa), said that the Republicans who favored the measure proposed a new policy—a repudiation of all the declarations of the party in the past and the institution of a new policy that called for a new following.

Mr. Cannon was taken at 5 o'clock upon the question: "Shall the joint resolution be engrossed and read a third time?" the result being as stated—yeas 120, nays 167. "The bill is dead," officially declared the Speaker, and the House adjourned.

In the course of his speech in the House today Representative Hatch (Missouri) said: "Now, mark what I say, the inexorable law of cause and effect has not been expunged from the statute book of the Almighty, unless a halt is called very soon you may expect to see the horrors of the French revolution put on the American stage with all the modern improvements, and that within the next decade, Nor am I alone. That gentleman, Astor, who went to England some time ago, bought him a place on the island and became a British subject, say what is coming as plainly as I do, so he took time by the forelock and skipped out when there was not such a rush for state rooms as there will be after awhile. He knew possibly that he would be in command as you and I have seen them for some years past the time was not far off when there would be such a crowd of his class of people hurrying aboard every one of our ships, that he might be shoved off the gangplank."

On Monday night at 10 o'clock Capt. Howkett, of the Queensmore, when within about 190 miles of Cape Charles, saw signals of distress, and running alongside found the schooner Alma Cummings, from Port Royal, S. C., for Boston in command of Capt. Cummings with a crew of seven men. The boat was leaking badly, and had been kept afloat for two days only through the unceasing efforts of the crew at the pumps. They had gone without food, and most of the men had their hands and feet badly frostbitten. They were completely exhausted when taken from the sinking vessel.

On the following morning the Queensmore found 100 miles from Cape Charles a small boat in which were six men and two corpses, the crew of the schooner Marion P. Spriggs. The Spriggs was bound from Lambert Point for Boston, with a cargo of coal, in charge of Capt. Ira W. Hatch. The heavy ice cut her through, and she struck on the rocks of the Chesapeake Bay almost before the small boat could be launched. There was no time to provision her, or to save the crew's effects. The boat was blown out to sea, and for 40 hours the men battled with the waves, the biting winds and the pangs of hunger and thirst. E. W. Patterson, of Chelsea, Mass., and Chas. Urban, of Philadelphia, died of exposure.

TWO SHIPWRECKED CREWS.

Brought Into Port at Baltimore by a British Steamer.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 14.—Two shipwrecked crews were brought into port this afternoon by the British steamship Queensmore, from Liverpool. The men had suffered terribly, and two died from exposure before the rescuers arrived.

THEY NEVER RETURNED.

Two Steamers Whose Non-Arrival Creates Anxiety.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Considerable anxiety prevails in shipping circles concerning the British steamer Salisbury which left Gibraltar on Jan. 17 for this city. The average time for the Salisbury to make the run from Gibraltar is about seventeen days, taking into consideration the winter weather, and she has now been 29 days out. The Salisbury is quite an old steamer of 1,200 tons burden, and is commanded by Capt. Charles Holdier.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The steamer City of St. Augustine, from Jacksonville, Fla., lumber laden, for New York, is now ten days overdue. She has not been heard from since she was seen by the schooner Ida Lawrence, on Feb. 5, off the coast of North Carolina. The captain of the St. Augustine is J. H. Gaskill and the Chief Engineer Peter Murphy. Her crew numbers eighteen men, including officers.

Insurance Rates Raised.

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—The Toronto board of fire underwriters, at their annual meeting, decided upon a change which will mean an increase of rates to retail stores of over $5,000 a year of ground rent. Such stores are to be specially rated by the secretary, Mr. Robt. McLean, subject to the approval of the board. Mr. P. H. Sims, of the British America, was chosen president, Mr. Alfred Wright, of the London and Lancashire, being chosen vice-president, and Mr. Robt. McLean, secretary.

Convicted Armenians.

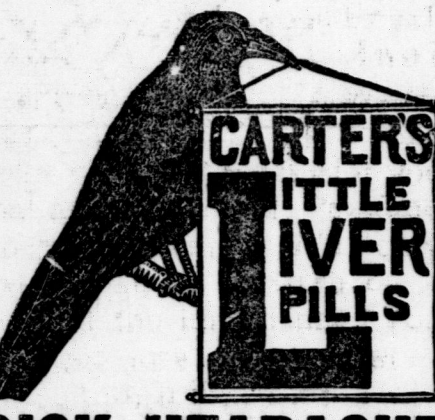

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 14.—Authentic news has been received at the British embassy here that the Armenians convicted at Erzinghan on Nov. 15 last, twenty were sentenced to death, six to imprisonment for life, and 21 to other terms of imprisonment. The British Government has been assured that before these sentences are carried out the court will have a careful revision of all the proceedings. The judgment was confirmed by the Court of Cassation here on Jan. 28. After the hearing at Moosh is over the Turkish commission will visit Sassoun and investigate outrages there.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The polyglot temperance petition, 30 miles long, is in the guardianship of the Adams Express Company here. It arrived from Chicago last night. The following invitation has been sent out:

"The President and the members of the Cabinet, Senators and representatives, are especially invited to be present on Friday evening, Feb. 15, to listen to addresses by Miss Frances E. A NOVEL and beautiful winter charity festival took place in Brussels a few days ago. Several sculptors got up in the public park an exhibition of works of art executed in snow. There were scenes and groups and single statues in the greatest variety, from portrait statues of well-known persons to the figure of a sleeping drunkard. Every possible combination to command admiration or excite mirth was wrought, and bands of music, colored fountains and skating matches added zest to the snowy exhibition.
