[Special to The Advertiser.] BRANTFORD, July 26.—The Battalion here today received official STRATFORD PRIVATE word that it would proceed to Camp Niagara early in August for the summer months. It was made clear that the battalion would not be amalgamated but would retain its identity. A big recruiting campaign will be put on before the battalion leaves the city. The muster roll of the battalion now numbers 567 men. Capt. Sweet will go to Camp Borden shortly to take a field officer's course, and Lieuts. Duncan and Tyrwhitt to the same place to take the captain's course. Ptes. Buck and Baker will accompany them and take a course to qualify for lieutenants.
