GREAT BRITAIN TO STUDY TIBET

Explorers. Ethnologists and Scientists Leave For Shasa Shortly.

Mission to Proceed Under Auspices of International Buddhist Union.

LONDON, Aug. 9.-Great Britain intends to make a thorough study of the little-known land of Tibet, where devil worship and belief in ghosts still exist. A mission composed of some of England's ablest explorers, scientists, missionaries and ethnologists soon will leave London for the city of Lhasa, which is buried behind the world's greatest rampart of mountains, the Himalayas, between India and China. The mission will proceed under the auspices of the International Buddhist Union, representing all schools of Buddhism, including the Buddhist Society of the United States.

The mission will make a closer investigation of the Tibetian people their customs, religion and language, than has yet been possible, together with a study of rare books and manupresent day is veiled in mystery. The Tibetans live in mountain strongholds 15,000 feet above the level of the sea, which is 500 feet higher than Mount Whitney, the highest peak in the United States. They have always proved inhospitable to foreigners and to the introduction of modern ideas. Little is known of the origin of the people. Local tradition has it that the progenitors of the race were "a she-devil of the Himalayas" and an ape from the plains of Hin-
