

Jeffries Enters Movies; Flour-Bag Bombs; Guards Britain's Health

During military maneuvers in England, where aeroplanes take part, flour bags are employed to bring home to the participating troops the effect of such an attack. The sergeant sustained a direct hit and is theoretically "blown to atoms"

This photograph was taken just after the start of the Junior Car Clubs' two-hundred-mile race at Brooklands in England

It was a long, long line and a weary line that waited for the gates to open in Washington for the first game of the world's series. But the long wait is worth it, they say

After five years of service, one of the veterans of the London-Paris passenger air service has been retired. The great plane, which is the oldest on the route, was given a funeral ceremony at Croydon recently

Manchester, England, received its first visit of a vessel from the British fleet recently, when the Fifth Naval Destroyer Flotilla sailed up to its doors

This scrap book, containing 61,210 clippings relative to the Prince of Wales' second visit to the United States, is being sent to London so H.R.H. can refresh his memory of the good times he had there

Millions in treasure to be salvaged from the deep are taking sixty men from New York to search the sea off Cape Charles for the rotting hulk of the liner Merida and the treasure of between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000

Here is said to be one of the oldest houses in Scarborough, Ontario, which has been standing for over 100 years. For many years it was used as a school house for the children of pioneers

The Khalifat al Massiah, head of the Ahmadiyya movement in Islam, is one of the striking figures at the conference on "some living religions in the British Empire," which is in session in London. He employs thirteen secretaries.

It is reported that King Haakon of Norway has cancelled his proposed visit to the United States after reading the press reports describing the huge throngs that attended every move of the Prince of Wales

James J. Jeffries, former holder of the world's heavyweight championship, is being taught the art of make-up by the film comedian, Larry Semon, with whom Jeff. is making his screen debut

Above is a new portrait of the Right Hon. John Wheatley, who holds the responsible position of head of Britain's Health Ministry in Ramsay MacDonald's Labor cabinet

Prince Max of Baden and his bride, Princess Marie Alexandra of Baden, are shown just after they were married at Salem Castle in Germany recently. The match was long opposed by the ex-kaiser

Peggy, the Belgian police dog of Dr. Ernest F. Arnold of Toronto, hasn't been filmed yet, but she has won fame far and wide as an exceptionally clever police dog

Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci, famous soprano, and her husband, Homer Samuels, her accompanist, sailed from New York recently for a European tour

Zaghlul Pasha, who has been called the strong man and the stormy petrel of Egyptian politics, and now that country's prime minister, arrived with his wife and suite on a visit to England, the other day

Here is said to be one of the last photographs of the Beryl M. Corkum, which was running between Rum Row and Halifax until recently, when she was reported capsized and a derelict off Georges Fishing Bank

Miss Dorothy Hildegard Peineck of Brooklyn, N.Y., liked the ball playing of Ross Young, star outfielder of the New York Giants, so well that she fell in love with him and they will be married after the world's series