MERCIER'S THREATS. leader upon the Quebec threats of secsation and annexation. If says: We are evidently in the ave of a period of trouble in Canada. The failure of the Fisheries Treaty and the threats of commercial retaliation, now so very near fulfilment on the part of the United States, have excited public feeling throughout the entire Dominion. Quebec is evidently taking at England reather than to the Dominion this proposition to throw in its lot with the Republic on the other side of the border. Language of that kind from Quebec is unhappily nothing novel. It has long been temperature of the tribundary of the stuation is a grave one, but it ought not to be bayond to entire the continuous and its hardships are enough to account the collition we have lately winessed any province talks of separation as a cat, it is because some provinces have arned to regard that solution as a relief.
