

- "This Canada of Ours," poem by J. D. Edgar, 76.
- Thompson, David, his book on the War of 1812, 12, 67.
- Thompson, Ernest, artist, 87.
- Tilley, Sir Leonard S., statesman, 15.
- Todd, A., his "Parliamentary Government," 18, 69.
- Trinity College at Toronto, its architecture, 90.
- "Trois Morts," poem by O. Crémazie, 68.
- Tully, Sidney, artist, 87.
- Tupper, Sir Charles, statesman, 15.
- Turcotte, L., his "History of Canada," 20, 71.
- UNIACKE, J. Boyle, statesman, 15.
- Universities and Colleges in Canada, 65.
- University of Toronto, its architecture, 90.
- VERNER, F. A., artist, 54.
- Verreau, Abbé, contributor to Royal Society, 38.
- "WACOUSTA, or the Prophecy," romance by Major J. Richardson, 82.
- Waters, Frank, poet, 75.
- Watson, Homer, artist, 54.
- Watson, S. J., poet, 73.
- Way, Chief Justice, of Adelaide, S. A., mentioned, 80.
- "Week, The," its literary work in Canada, 40.
- "White Stone Canoe," poem by J. D. Edgar, 76.
- Whitman, Walt, as poet, 23.
- Wicksteed, G. W., poet, 74.
- Wilmot, Judge, statesman, 14.
- Wilson, Sir D., one of the founders and constant workers of the Royal Society, 33, 38.
- Woodcock, Percy, artist, 87.
- World's Fair at Chicago, 54; beauty of architecture, and excellence of exhibition of paintings and statuary, 55-57; must help to develop higher artistic achievement in America, 57; Canadian painters at, 55, 56.
- "YOUNGER American Poets," collection by D. Sladen, 76.
- Young, Sir William, statesman, 15.