

INTERESTING BOOKS FOR LITTLE CHILDREN.

For Library Use Only.

HYMNS FOR INFANT MINDS. By JANE TAYLOR. pp. 109. 24mo, in paper covers, 5 cts.; cloth, 15 cts.

This little work is beautifully illustrated. The hymns are too well known to need commendation.

PEARLS FOR THE LITTLE ONES. A SERIES OF STORIES FROM REAL CHILD-LIFE. By MRS. MARY JANE PHILLIPS. pp. 148. 18mo, cloth. 25 cts.

A choice little book of eight stories, of more value to children than pearls from the ocean or gems from the mine. The fact that the incidents are from real child-life, greatly increases its value. With engravings.

THE WAY TO BE HAPPY; OR, THE STORY OF WILLIE, THE GARDENER BOY. By CATHERINE D. BELL. pp. 62. 24mo. 15 cts.

A touching story of poverty, piety, industry, and contentment.
