ST. THOMAS, ONT.

British Columbia

Several appointments of interest have recently been made by the Provincial Government in the horticultural branch of the Department of Agriculture.

F. L. Goodman, who has just completed his third year at the Ontario Agricultural College, will be in temporary charge of work which will cover investigations in the Cold Storage of Apples—the shipments of rhubarb, pre-cooling, careful handling and transportation of strawberries and raspberries; the operation of the pre-cooling plant on tender fruits at Summerland and handling experiments with the various orchard fruits; investigations of the suitability of refrigerator cars, etc.

T. C. Sanderson, an Ontario Agricultural College under-graduate, who has just completed his third year's work, has been appointed vegetable expert and will be at work for the next five months. He will be in charge of experimental investigation work and general instruction work in the vegetable industry of the province, especially in the Lower Mainland, for the present year.

W. W. Hayes, who graduated in horticulture from the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, in June, has been appointed as assistant horticulturist.

L. F. Burrows has completed his third year's work in horticulture at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, and has been appointed temporary assistant to P. E. French, assistant horticulturist at Salmon Arm.

E. C. Hunt, a graduate in agriculture of the W.S.C., Pullman, Wash., took up his duties on the 15th February as assistant to M. S. Middleton, in charge of Pruning Schools in West Kootenay, and on the 1st May took charge of the blight control work at Grand Forks.

H. M. Scott has taken third year's work at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. He will be temporary assistant to M. S. Middleton, and have headquarters at Nelson.

M. H. Howitt, graduate from the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, 1913, who has been in the Fort George district, has been appointed temporary assistant to A. H. Tomlinson, assistant horticulturist, Prince Rupert.

M. H. Ruhmann, who has been on blight control work at Grand Forks for several months, will go to Vernon as assistant to the pathologist and entomologist, which position has been filled by the appointment of J. W. Eastham, lately assistant to H. T. Gussow, Dominion Botanist.
