

London. Sunday, June 5th, was spent at Southampton; where the Bishop preached twice in All Saints' Church.

From Southampton the Bishop, attended by Mr. Nicolls, one of his Chaplains, proceeded to Oxford, where he had been invited to be present at the Annual Commemoration in the University, and to receive the honorary degree of D. C. L., which was conferred by the Chancellor, the Earl of Derby, upon the Bishops of Quebec, St. Andrew's in Scotland, and Ohio in the U. S., and other persons, at the same time. This being the first occasion on which the Earl of Derby discharged the duties of his office, it was made one of great interest, and was enlivened by a repetition, day after day, of the most gorgeous ceremonies and brilliant festivities. On the 8th, the Bishop was present at a sermon preached in aid of the funds of the Radcliffe Infirmary, and on the 10th left Oxford, where, together with Mr. Ingersoll, the American Minister, he had been the guest of the Master of University College. On the 11th of June, festival of St. Barnabas, the Bishop attended an anniversary celebration held at Windsor, by an Association formed for promoting the cause of the Church of God in the interesting field of labor confided to the Bishop of New Zealand, who has been instrumental in promoting a great work among the heathen. The service upon the occasion was performed in Trinity Church, a recent valuable addition to the Churches of the neighborhood, in the erection of which as well as of other works of Charity and Religion upon the same spot, a remarkable zeal and munificence has been displayed. The Church has a surpliced Choir, and the chanting is conducted antiphonally. The Bishop enjoyed the hospitality at Windsor, of the Rev. H. Hawtrey, whose residence is called the Church House.

During the following week, his Lordship was engaged in London, with the Bishop of Montreal and the Principal of Bishop's College, in putting matters in train for carrying out the object of Mr. Nicolls's visit to England on behalf of that Institution. The Bishop of Quebec had not undertaken to anticipate the work of Mr. Nicolls, although he had, while closely engaged with other objects, been enabled incidentally to advance the interests of the College, by enlisting the aid of a few private friends in its cause, who have collected about £200 stg. towards the erection of the College Chapel. On the 14th June, his Lordship had an interview with the Duke of Newcastle, and received encouragement from his Grace to hope that the measures which have been under deliberation in the Episcopal Conferences for relieving certain difficulties in the Colonial Dioceses and facilitating their administration, and which had been subsequently submitted to Her Majesty's Government, would be carried in a desirable manner, through the Imperial Parliament. On the 17th, his Lordship attended the Annual Meeting of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, at which the first resolution was moved by the Lord Bishop of Montreal. On Sunday, the 19th, being the last Sunday spent by the Bishop in England, he preached at the beautiful Church of St. Mary's, at Bury St. Edmunds, and on the 20th, attended a meeting of Colonial Bishops in London, at which the Bishops of Montreal, Antigua, Guiana, Capetown and Nova Scotia were also present. His Lordship proceeded the same evening to Southampton, where, (with the exception of one day devoted to a visit to the widow of a former Missionary, and mother of one now laboring in this Diocese, and to the Rev. H. Caswall, author of "America and the American Church.") the Bishop remained till the day preceding his embarkation at Liverpool. The Rev. W. Binet, who was ordained by letters dimissory from his Lordship, on Trinity Sunday, by the Bishop of London, for the service of the Church in this Diocese, accompanied his Lordship from Liverpool.
