

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special.

Rev. H. F. Adams, Truro, preaches to-day, both Services. He will visit the Sunday School and conduct the After Service this evening. Pray for blessings on all the Services held to-day.

The Rev. F. M. Holt, whom the Church called to the Pastorate, will preach for us next Lord's Day, Morning and Evening. We are all anxious about a Pastor, and we shall all want to see Bro. Holt and hear him, and give him hearty welcome.

Rev. H. F. Adams, Truro, preaches to-day, morning and evening.

Brother Holt will be entertained by Bro. A. C. Layton, 23 North Park-Street.

Convention Sunday to-day. Remember your offering to this fund.

The Business Meeting is important. The Reports of Finance Committee and other matters are considered. By attending this meeting monthly you gain facts and figures concerning the work of the Church. As an active member and desirous for the welfare of your Church, you should PLAN to be there. Com prepared to help.

Monday evening, 6th inst., was spent by the Union with "Longfellow." Miss Edith Wiswell prepared an interesting study of the poet's life and the influence governing his career. Mr. Wilbur Scott gave an analysis of the author's style, and a concise description of the most notable works. The musical selections were much appreciated. Miss Moore and Miss Ida Hayes sang a Duett, and Miss Maude McPherson a Solo, "The Old House by the Lindens." Mr. John Thompson very kindly sent a boquet from a plant that grew over the grave of Longfellow. In response to the Roll-call many of the Union members responded with suitable selections. Miss Daisy McDonald recited "The Famine" from "Hiawatha." Other friends also shared in this exercise, making an enjoyable evening.
