"Why are you always so blue, Scribbler?" "Because," said the author, "I'm so seldom red."

No, Aurelia, it isn't the centre-board that is responsible for the conviviality on board a yacht. It is the sideboard."

A WAG has discovered a queer coincidence in the fact that while red is made from madder, bulls are made madder by red.

"ARE you engaged to Miss Eclair?" "No, not exactly. But when I asked for her hand she gave me the refusal of it."

GUINNESS made $3,000,000 from his porter last year. Guinness's porter must have learned his business in a Pullman palace car.

"SOUP or fish, sir?" asked the waiter. "Neither," replied the guest. "That was a superficial question, wasn't it?" said the guest's friend.

CUSTOMER (to waiter): Some cheese please. Waiter: Beg pardon, sir; very sorry, sir; cheese out, sir. Customer: That so? When do you expect it back?

We notice that a waterspout burst in Kentucky the other day. A waterspout that would go into business in Kentucky might expect to burst with no assets.

SOME one is advocating gardens on the roof. This will be convenient, at least when potatoes are needed for dinner, all you will have to do is to go to the garret and pick them off the ceiling.

"I SEE that a new word is called for, to describe railroad accidents," remarked Spacker; "the word 'telescope' is not considered appropriate." "Isn't it?" replied Timan; "then how would collide-oscope do?"

STOUT old lady (to druggist's boy): Boy d'ye keep a preparation for reducin' the weight? Boy: Yes'm. Stout old lady: Well, I don't know eggactly how much I ought to git. Boy (diagnosingly). Better take all we've got, ma'am.

MISS GOTHAM (to Mr. Wabash, recently returned from abroad): I suppose you were at court while in London, Mr. Wabash? Mr. Wabash (uneasily): Well—er—yes. Miss Gotham; but only once, and then I got off with a merely nominal fine.

A PASTOR, some time since, sought financial help for an important charity. Among those whom he asked to give something was a lady, who, unfortunately, bore a vinegary face. She declined to give money, but promised to "lend her countenance" to the cause. He retired in dismay.

LADY (at the polls): I want to vote, sir Election judge: All right, mum; how old are you? Lady (flushing): What? Judge: How old are you? Lady: Do I have to tell that? Judge: Certainly. Lady (tearing up the ticket): Thanks, I don't want to vote that bar. Good-morning.

MR. ISAACSTEIN: I sell you dot coat, my fren, for sayventeen tollar; you take hum along? Customer: I thought, Isaacstein, that you didn't do business on Saturday. Isn't this your Sunday? Mr. Isaacstein (in a low, reverent tone of voice): My fren, to sell a coat like dot for sayventeen tollars vas not peesnees; dot vas charity.

"Don't you see that sign up there?" asked the grocer, pointing sternly to a placard on the wall bearing the fateful words. "No Credit Given Here." "Yes," replied the man, who had just asked for a barrel of flour on tick, "I see it." But how about that other sign up there on the other side. "If You Don't See What You Want, Ask for It?"

A DEMURE, sombre dressed juryman, in melancholy accents, claimed exemption from serving, and Justice Hannen asked in kind and sympathetic tones, "On what grounds?" "My lord," said the applicant, "I am deeply interested in a funeral which takes place to-day, and am most anxious to follow." "Certainly, sir, your plea is a just one." The man departed, and a moment after Mr. Justice Hannen learned that he was—the undertaker.

THE parish clerk was told to give out the notice: "On Sunday next the service in this church will be held in the afternoon, and on the following Sunday it will be held in the morning, and so on alternately until further notice." What he actually did give out was as follows: "On Sunday next the morning service in this church will be held in the afternoon, and on the following Sunday the afternoon service will be held in the morning, and so on to all eternity."

OPIMUM

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weakness and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in wisely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments. As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, worn-out, run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housewives, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest curative and restorative tonic. As a soothing and strengthening medicine, "Favorite Prescription" is unparalleled and invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, excitation, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and dependency. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, or a weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppurations, profuse or falling of the womb, weak back, female weakness, anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries accompanied with internal heat. As a regulator and promoter of functional action, it is that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effect when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life." "Favorite Prescription" when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Laxative Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrap, and faithfully carried out for many years. Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00. For large, illustrated Treatise on Diseases of Women (160 pages, paper-covered), send ten cents in stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 683 Main St., BUFFALO, N. Y.
