

SINCLAIR'S JOURNAL

OF

BRITISH

North

America.

VOL. 1.

QUEBEC, 28TH APRIL, 1849.

No. 5.

CONTENTS.

Life Assurance.
An Old Tar's Yarn—a Story for Sailors.
The Crook of Gold—an Irish Story for gold-seekers.
Removal.
Correspondents.
Emulation.
Poetry.
Sketches of distinguished men—Commodore Napier.
Withered Hopes.
Advertisements.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

So entirely has the spirit of calculation infused itself into all human operations that the liability of man to every mischance, even death itself, is becoming a contingency to be averted, and his likelihood of leaving a family to want, a calamity that he can at pleasure avoid. Figures and philosophy are regulating the result of events over which uncertainty must always hang, until