

CONSUMPTION CURED.

AN old physician, retired from practice, had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints. Having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, and desiring to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who wish it, this recipe in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail, by addressing, with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 320 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

JACOBS' & SPARROWS' OPERA HOUSE. Matinees—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Week March 23rd. Special Good Friday matinee. An exchange says: "The reception extended Mr. Barker and his company in 'The Emigrant' was of a most enthusiastic character. 'Pete' Baker, though he has had a career and experience that when told must be the envy of some more pretentious comedians, is just now in the bloom and strength of his power. As we saw him last night at the Whitney Grand in 'The Emigrant,' the mellowness and ease which comes by repetition were the most enjoyable charms of his acting, as the simple German. Baker ignores the bluster and the noise, which too many, unfortunately, mistake as legitimate tactics in the presentation of a true comedy characterization. Mr. Baker, in 'The Emigrant,' gives a personation that exudes the warmth of reality, and in its innocence and simplicity in action is positively natural and probable. Familiarity with it convinces that it is art, but to the occasional visitor to the theatre such revelation of character, as we see it in the byways and highways of actual life, must be an hour of joyful recognition and interest. The rolling by of years then continues to advance Mr. Baker in his art, and it looks as though Mr. Baker was destined to fill the popular field so long held undisputed possession of. Mr. Baker prances about the stage with alacrity, and sings his popular songs in excellent voice and with delectable ease. His support is all that could be expected.

JOHN LABATT,

LONDON, ONT.

Received the highest awards for purity and excellence at Philadelphia, 1876; Canada, 1876; Austria, 1877; and Paris, 1878. Rev. P. J. Ed. Page, Professor of Chemistry, Laval University, Que., says: "I have analyzed the India Pale Ale manufactured by John Labatt, London, Ont., and have found it a light ale, containing but little alcohol, of a very agreeable taste and superior quality, and compares with the best imported ales. I have also analyzed the Porter XXX Stout of the same Brewery, which is of an excellent quality; its flavor is very agreeable. It is a tonic more energetic than the above Ale, for it is a little richer in alcohol, and can be compared advantageously with any imported article. James Good & Co., Agents, Toronto.
