K pluribas unum. Made up of every creature's best. Realizer le blen et contempler le beau.

The object of this Publication is to reproduce, in convenient form, the choice extracts which are now spread out in Reviews, Newspapers and Periodicals published in Europe, and particularly in France, as is indicated by our title, and to furnish this valuable collection to the Public of Canada, at a very mode-

It is believed there is in Canada a vacancy for such a Publication; and that a compilation affording a collection of the literary beauties and discussions of nany audiects, which now appear in the old World in the French tongue, would be acceptable as well to the English as French speaking portions of our popu-

Certainly to all that part of the English speaking population to whom it is an object to cultivate acquaintance with the French language, or the polite literature of France, the projected publication will be in an especial manner valuable.

We purpose to give to our Review as wide a latitude as possible (even to affording to Romance a small space,) and to furnish extracts from the speeches and writings of the Thiers, the Berryers, the Montalemberts, of Pere Felix, of Kolb-Bernard, Menseigneur Dupanloup, Michel Chevalier, Veuillot, De Laguerronniere, &c. &c., also sometimes from Figuro, and the Chariveri. It will thus be

Various, that the mind Of desultory men, studious of change

And pleased with novelty, may be indulged. Young people especially will find it very advantageous in their studies of the French language, as it will give them the best and safest illustrations of what they learn, adorning at the same time their memory and intelligence with some of the best productions in the world. And we can recent that it will be the most desirable means of initiating French Scholars int. the beauties of the diplomatic tongue
