WHERE HE WOULD BE.

Ex-Assistant Superintendent Mills called on one of the younger classes in the Sixth Ward School to see how they were getting along in geography. As the lesson progressed, he asked:

"Now if I were to bore a hole down through the centre of the earth where would I find myself?"

One of the children eagerly shook her hand for recognition.

"Now, where would I be?" asked the professor, calling on the child.

"You would be in—in—the bad place!" she shouted at the top of her voice.

The professor was considerably shocked at the answer, but contented himself with saying, "You are away off—sit down."—Scissors.

"That is a sweeping argument," remarked the husband whose wife used a broom to convince him that he ought to have been home several hours previously.

It was a School of Science man who rendered "Cæsar venit summa diligentia, omnibus capias,"—"Cæsar came on the top of the diligence, the omnibus being full."
