

of the judgment as postpones the claim of the appellant to the respondent's claim must be set aside.

The action should not be dismissed. Technically the plaintiff is entitled to redeem.

The judgment should be drawn declaring the rights of the appellant as we have found them, and the usual judgment will be drawn up to follow that.

The costs will be added to the mortgage claim.

---