

1889. FALL-WINTER. 1890.

COMPLETE IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

OUR STOCK OF

DRY AND FANCY GOODS,

Specialties in DRESS GOODS, including newest designs in DRESS ROBES, Ladies' WRAPS and JACKETS in CLOTH, PLUSH AND FUR, also FURLINED CLOAKS, TRIMMED MILLINERY, FUR BOAS and MUFFS.

STAPLE GOODS AT LOW PRICES.

Custom Tailoring in Ladies' and Gentlemen's Outside Garments by skilled workmen on the premises. Samples on application.

The Largest Showrooms in the Lower Provinces.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

WM. CUMMINGS & SONS, = Commercial St. Truro, N. S.

AWARDED MEDAL AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1889.

THE TEACHER.

A Magazine of Education and Pedagogy.

PUBLISHED ON THE 15th OF EVERY MONTH, EXCEPT JULY AND AUGUST.

Contains Six Valuable Departments, embracing every question within the scope of the educator's work.

THE TEACHER seeks to promote the PROFESSION of Teaching, and to advance every interest of its followers. It is regarded among eminent teachers and administrators of educational affairs (such, for instance, as Dr. W. T. Harris, Prof. G. Stanley Hall, Dr. H. M. Leipzig, Dr. N. Murray Butler, Mrs. Louisa Parsons Hopkins, Dr. Mary Putnam Jacobi, Prof. C. M. Woodward, Dr. W. N. Hailman, Dr. L. R. Klemm, etc.) as hardly having a peer in its field.

THE TEACHER is within the reach of all, and beneath the dignity of none.

Subscription only $1.00 a year. Address for Free specimen Copy,

THE TEACHER, 39 W. 14th St., New York.

TEACHERS

ARE INVITED TO SEND FOR OUR

Catalogue of Text Books and Teachers' Manuals.

Nearly all the Departments of School and College Work are covered by our List.

OUR PUBLICATIONS

Are to be found in every progressive institution in the United States, and to a considerable extent are used in Canada, in Great Britain, and in fact every quarter of the globe.

GINN & CO., Publishers,

Boston, New York, Chicago and London.