

2. This Treaty replaces the Agreement on Film and Video Relations between the Government of Canada and the Government of Ireland, done at Dublin on 4 April 1989 (the "1989 Agreement"). A Party may continue to confer benefits pursuant to the 1989 Agreement in relation to a work which qualified for benefits under that earlier treaty, provided that:

- (a) the producer of the work, which qualified under the 1989 Agreement, notifies each administrative authority, in writing, that it elects to continue receiving such benefits under that earlier treaty; and
- (b) the election is made within six months of the date of the entry into force of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 14

Settlement of Disputes

The Parties shall endeavor to resolve, by mutual consent, any dispute regarding the interpretation or application of this Treaty. They shall do so through consultations.

ARTICLE 15

Entry into Force

1. Each Party shall notify the other Party in writing of the completion of its internal procedures required for the entry into force of this Treaty. This Treaty shall enter into force on the first day of the first month following the date of the second notification of the completion of the procedures required for the entry into force.
2. This Treaty shall remain in force for a period of five years from the date of entry into force.
3. This Treaty shall renew automatically at the end of five years from the date of entry into force and at the end of every subsequent five-year period.
