

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

The Standing Senate Committee on Fisheries, formerly called Standing Senate Committee on Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, has the honour to present its

FOREWORD

SECOND REPORT

Your Committee, which was authorized to examine and report upon all aspects of the marketing of fish in Canada, and all implications thereof, has, in obedience to the Orders of Reference of February 6, 1985, May 14, 1986 and June 12, 1986, proceeded to that inquiry and now presents an interim report.

2.1	Geographic Boundaries	3
2.1.1	The Western Region	3
2.1.2	The Ontario Region	3
2.2	Landings in the Western Region	5
2.3	Landings in the Ontario Region	6
2.4	Relative Economic Importance of the Inland Fisheries	7
2.5	Processing Facilities in the Western Region	8
2.6	Processing Facilities, Producer and Processor Relationships in the Ontario Region	8
3	THE MARKETS FOR FRESHWATER FISH	11
3.1	Canadian Channels of Distribution for Freshwater Fish	12
3.1.1	Distribution Channels for the Western Region's Production	13
3.1.2	Distribution Channels for the Ontario Region's Production	14
3.2	Overview of U.S. Production, Markets and Distribution Channels	14
3.2.1	U.S. Production of Freshwater Fish	14
3.2.2	Trends in Fish Consumption in the U.S.	15
3.2.3	Overview of the U.S. Markets and Distribution Channels	17
4	PROBLEMS, ISSUES OF CONCERN, OPPORTUNITIES AND RECOMMENDATIONS	21
4.1	The Western Region	21
4.1.1	Centralization of Processing and Transportation Costs	21
4.1.2	Rough Fish (Low Value Species)	24
4.1.3	The Coordination of Supply	25
4.1.4	Over-Participation and Over-Capitalization	26
4.1.5	Allocation of Fish Stocks in the Western Region	27
4.1.6	Environment	28
4.1.7	Situation of the Northwest Territories	29
4.2	The Ontario Region	30
4.3	Problems, Issues and Opportunities Common to Both Regions	32
4.3.1	Insufficient Development of Local Markets	32
4.3.2	Product Substitution	34
4.3.3	The Growth of Aquaculture	34
4.3.4	The Potential Impact of Duties on Canada's Exports	35
4.3.5	Foreign Sales Promotion	36
5	CONCLUSIONS	37
6	SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS	39