

by the Supplemental Charters dated 30th August 1864, 11th May 1883 and 27th May 1884 for a further period of Ten years :

And whereas the last-mentioned period of Ten years during which the said Company is declared to remain incorporated will expire on the 31st day of May 1894 and application has been made to us for a prolongation of the incorporation of the said Company :

Now know ye that We by these presents do will and ordain that the said Company shall continue incorporated for a further period to commence at the expiration of the time at which the incorporation of the said Company is limited to expire as aforesaid and to expire on the 1st day of July 1901 and that subject as in this our Charter mentioned the said Original Charter as amended by the said Supplemental Charters and all the powers privileges and provisions therein contained shall remain in force for such further period as last aforesaid.

Provided always and We do hereby further Will and Ordain that nothing in this Our Charter shall affect our power to revoke the Original Charter as amended by the said Supplemental Charters or any of them on such representation as is in the Original Charter as amended by the said Supplemental Charters in that behalf contained or the power of the Treasury to make any representation authorised or required by the Original Charter as amended by the said Supplementary Charters or any of them to be made