

CONTENTS.

ix

CHAPTER XXX.

1765.

RUIN OF THE INDIAN CAUSE.

PAGE

Mission of Croghan. — Plunder of the Caravan. — Exploits of the Borders. — Congress at Fort Pitt. — Fraser's Discomfiture. — Distress of the Hostile Indians. — Pontiac; his Desperate Position. — Croghan's Party attacked. — Croghan at Ouatanon; his Meeting with Pontiac. — Pontiac offers Peace. — Croghan reaches Detroit. — Conferences at Detroit. — Peace Speech of Pontiac. — Results of Croghan's Mission. — The English take Possession of the Illinois 291

CHAPTER XXXI.

1766-1769.

DEATH OF PONTIAC.

Effects of the Peace. — Pontiac repairs to Oswego. — Congress at Oswego. — Speech of Sir William Johnson. — Reply of Pontiac. — Prospects of the Indian Race. — Fresh Disturbances. — Pontiac visits St. Louis. — The Village of Cahokia. — Assassination of Pontiac. — Vengeance of his Followers . . . 316

APPENDIX.

A. — THE IROQUOIS. — EXTENT OF THEIR CONQUESTS. — POLICY PURSUED TOWARDS THEM BY THE FRENCH AND THE ENGLISH. — MEASURES OF SIR WILLIAM JOHNSON.

1. Territory of the Iroquois 333
2. French and English Policy towards the Iroquois. — Measures of Sir William Johnson 335

B. — CAUSES OF THE INDIAN WAR.

1. Views of Sir William Johnson 340
2. Tragedy of Ponteach 343