Before J. A. C. Cameron, Master, Stuart v. Bank of Hamilton—W. N. Tilley, for defendant, moved for particulars of claim. W. J. Elliott for plaintiff. Motion dismissed with privilege of renewing it after examination for discovery. Costs in the capture by the chairman of the school, thru which the royal visitor, accompanied by the chairman of the school, thru which the royal visitor, accompanied by the chairman of the board of governors, passed. Following came Rev. D. Bruce Macdonald, head master; Principal Falconer, Sir Edmund Walker, Sir Edmund Osler, Sir Henry Pellatt, N. W. Rowell, K.C.; Mayor Hocken and others.

The singing of "O Canada," followed by the reading of Scripture by Rev. Dr. Neil, and prayer by Archdeacon Cody opened the proceedings.

A capacity audience filled the assembly hall, which was decorated with clusters of rich flags and many beautiful palms, and the red-coated cadets who lined the walls added an additional note of color to the gathering.

Principal Macdonald then gave the introductory address, outlining to His Royal Highness the work of St. Andrew's, and its high scholastic attainments. He also communicated the information that plans were decided upon for the new school at York Mills, which
