ITALIAN PARLIAMENT.

Report on the Bank Scandals Pre- sented—Severe Reflections on the Ministry.

Scenes of Great Disorder Both in and Outside the House—Resigna- tions Certain.

ROME, Nov. 23.—The eighteenth session of the Italian Parliament opened to-day. The Chamber of Deputies was crowded with all the leading politicians of the country. Signor Giuseppe Zanardelli, the present president of the Chamber, announced that he had received under seal the report of the commission appointed to investigate the bank scandals.

The Chamber thereupon approved the proposition to read the report... The Chamber thereupon approved the proposition to read the report... The Chamber thereupon approved the proposition to read the report...

THE FRENCH CHAMBER.

Opening of the Session of the Yofa of Confidence De- mand.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—Mr. Lockroy, Radical Republican, opened the debate in the Chamber of Deputies to-day on the Govern- ment demand for a vote of confidence. He declared the preceding sitting, at which the Government announced its programme, an oratorical failure.

At this point M. M. Jourde, Jaures and Baudin, all Socialists, rose, yelling wildly. M. Deschamps, Union Republican, also interrupted the speaker, saying: "There are anti-parliamentary in the Chamber."

AGAINST "THE SOONERS."

END, Oklahoma, Nov. 23.—The settlers of "A" township, county "L," have organized a vigilance committee with D. J. Moorehouse, an ex-deputy U. S. Marshal, as mover for an investigating committee of the bank and scandals, was received with wild enthusiasm. In reply to the acclamations of the great crowd, he shouted from the steps, "You are faint hearted, you have no convictions; if you had you would put the torch to this parliamentary hall."

BANK OF ENGLAND.

Cashier May Formally Severs His Con- nection With That Great In- stitution.

May's Offence a Breach of Principle— The Bank's Loss Comparatively Small.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Mr. Frank May, formerly cashier of the Bank of England, finally severed his connection with the bank on Saturday, under sanction of the directors. His non-appearance at his usual post revived the suspicion of his concealment of the withdrawal, and created others, the most sensational of which was that he had committed suicide. The directors held a special meeting yesterday to decide whether they should issue an official statement to show that the reports that the bank had sustained heavy losses through Mr. May were baseless.

CANADIAN NEWS.

QUEBEC, Nov. 22.—The Quebec newspapers treat the attempt to blow up the Nelson monument at Montreal as the mad prank of a number of foolish and irresponsible boys, calling more for a "spanking" than for any other punishment.

WILL WORK ALL WINTER.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 23.—(Special).—Hugh Ryan, the Seattle Steeple Chase contractor, is here, and says he will carry on the work of excavating for the dams all winter. He is confident they can have all ready for use by January 1 next.

CANNOT BE CIVILIZED.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 23.—The Commissioner of Indian affairs has received a number of annual reports from Indian agents. The majority of them indicate general prosperity among the tribes and a gradual advancement in civilization.

THE "ALAMEDA"

Arrives in San Francisco With News From Samoa and Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Information was received to-day by the steamship Alameda of another tragedy committed by the natives of the island of Pentecost, in the New Hebrides group. The victims were George Lifen, of Abery, and two natives, forming a portion of the crew of his vessel, a small motor sailing under the American flag. It appears that Lifen visited Pentecost for the purpose of recruiting labor, and early one morning, accompanied by two natives, left his vessel in a small boat for the shore, to bring off several native recruits.

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

Officers of the State Department Be- lieve the Queen Has Been Restored.

The Next Steamer Expected to Bring This News From Honolulu.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 23.—A Sun special from Washington City says: "The reply of Minister Thurston to some of 'Mr. Blount's' flagrant misstatements and his bold accusations of untruthfulness against the ex-commissioner have given great offense to certain officials of the administration who are supposed to represent the views of the President and Secretary of State. The indignation of these gentlemen is so great that they do not hesitate to intimate to friends that Mr. Thurston's passport will be returned by the President. He is accused of violating all known rules of diplomatic etiquette and there is a loud demand from the State Department for his punishment. It could not be learned last night what steps the administration proposes to take, if any, to discipline the plain-spoken representative of the Provisional Government."

ANTWERP'S FAIR.

OLYMPIA, Nov. 23.—Washington has been offered an opportunity to redeem herself at an international exposition. The executive department of the state has received an invitation to participate in the Antwerp international exposition for 1894, under the patronage of the King of the Belgians.

COMMERCIAL AND CURRENCY.

Speech of Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle—"Honor Demands Coin Current."

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York are always of more than local interest, and the one hundred and twenty-fifth banquet at Delmonico's Tuesday evening was not an exception. Men of national repute were present, and not only were the affairs of city and state discussed, but the policy of the nation was fore-shadowed by utterances of its high representatives. Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle was the principal speaker. He responded to the toast, "Commerce demands and the honor of the country requires that the obligation of the United States shall be met in coin current in any market of the world, and that this question shall be settled for all time and beyond controversy."
