CAUTION

IT HAS come to our notice that several institutions have, for their pupils, copied our books, notably "THE DICTATIONS." This, as can be readily understood, causes us a serious prejudice as it reduces our sale. For the last 25 years we have worked incessantly to perfect our system. Now that we have attained that end it is only just that we should reap our reward. In future we will prosecute all delinquents.

Every person who, without the consent of the author, translates or publishes in whole or in part any copy of this work is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished accordingly. 38 Vic., c. 88, s. 23.
