

Queen Victoria Park

affords the most beautiful and comprehensive view of the mightiest of cataracts, and is also well adapted for picnic purposes. The Park is typically Canadian, being laid out and kept up in the most thorough-going style, and is commodiously appointed to the last detail.

For a trolley ride of unequalled scenic splendor, take one of the International Railway Company's comfortable observation cars at Queenston, Ont., and traverse the Canadian side of the wonderful Niagara Gorge past Brock's Monument, the Whirlpool, the Lower Rapids, Niagara Falls, Ont., and into Queen Victoria Park where for hours at a time one may watch the different aspects of the Falls from various vantage points.
