

CHAPTER VII

397. What is the status of insurance against unemployment?

398. Define Socialism. Trace its history.

399. Account for the rise of modern socialist ideas. Describe the changes in the doctrines of the state which are related to the growth of socialism.

400. Classify the various socialist doctrines. Examine the policy of "direct action."

401. Discuss the derivation of the various socialist doctrines.

402. Why is international socialism at once necessary (from the socialist point of view) and difficult? To what circumstances may the growth of syndicalism be attributed?

403. Explain the meaning of "Class consciousness." Examine the policy of collectivism in the light of the discussions in the text upon the economic aspects of the state.