

AMERICAN HOUSE,

Nos. 47 and 49 St. Henry Street,
And 20, 22 and 24 St. Joseph Street,

MONTREAL, C.E.

THE above well-known House has been enlarged by the addition of the House heretofore known as the Exchange Hotel. The whole has undergone extensive and thorough repairs and alterations, and has been newly furnished throughout. The Proprietor has taken great pains to provide every comfort for his Guests, and has fitted the House up with all the Modern Improvements, including Gas in every Room in the House.

HOT AND COLD BATHS,

And, in short, all the requirements for a First-Class Hotel, and will omit no exertions to make the House a comfortable home for all who may favor him with their patronage.

From its close proximity to Great St. James, McGill, Notre Dame, St. Paul and all other principal business Streets of the City, and from its central locality with regard to the principal places of interest about Town it cannot fail to command itself to the favorable notice of parties travelling for pleasure or on business. PORTERS in attendance at the Depot and Steamboat Landings.

C. S. BROWNE, PROPRIETOR.
