

DON'T BUY A PIG IN A POKE.

When you need a medicine buy something of known value. Nyals Family Remedies are known by each and every druggist that sells them. The druggist knows them as standard prescriptions put up by the New York & London Drug Co., one of the largest and most reputable firms of pharmacists in the world. Remedies compounded only from finest ingredients and from the latest and most approved formulas, all of which are known to the druggist.

There are no miraculous claims made for the remedies in bright dandelion-colored packages. No mystery about them at all. Ask your druggist what they contain and he will tell you. He will also tell you that a new era has dawned on the packaged medicine business in Canada, and that in place of "cure-alls" Nyals Remedies offer a scientific, approved remedy for each everyday ailment.

Another "Hungry Horde"

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The rats in the Langevin block still disturb the rest of the ex-minister of public works, who this afternoon endeavored to place the responsibility for them on the Conservative Government "before 98."

It was curious to reflect, he added, that these rampant rodents, nurtured under the benign influence of the Liberal administration, had only begun their depredations when the Conservatives came into power. Perhaps they had seen the procession moving towards the public crib and swung into line. All they could find was these postal notes and money orders.

"That's all there was left," commented Hon. Geo. E. Foster.

Mission Services Sunday. Missionary services will be held by ministers, missionaries and laymen at most of the Methodist churches in Toronto to-morrow. General Secretary Carney will speak at Westmoreland-avenue in the morning, and Trinity Methodist Church at night.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS

AT THE PRINCESS.

"The Servant in the House." Tyrone Power, who created the role of the Drain-Man in the original production of "The Servant in the House," will appear in that part again at the Princess Theatre next week.

The play by Charles Rann Kennedy, while presenting a story which progresses in dramatic form and with sustained interest, has aroused discussion by reason of its criticism of modern spiritual and social conditions.

Mr. Power is supported by Preston Kendall, David Glassford, Amy Vaneas, Elizabeth Bacon, Arlys Campbell and Wilfrid Rogers.

"Alma, Where Do You Live?" The name of Jean Briquet is a household word in Paris, the city which dearly loves him and his music, but in this country it is only recently that he has acquired any vogue. Like Franz Lehar of "The Merry Widow" fame, he flashed across the country one of the most talented of composers. It is called "Alma, Where Do You Live?" and from it the German-French farce, which Joe Weber will produce in English at the Princess Theatre, beginning Monday evening, Feb. 5.

ROYAL ALEXANDRA.

"Excuse Me." The Rupert Hughes farce that will be at the Alexandra, all next week, starting Monday night, comes to Toronto with a reputation that promises merry entertainment. The play aims at laughter and it realizes its purpose. Its extraordinary success in New York, Boston, Chicago and elsewhere indicates that it is an exceptionally amusing farce, and that it pleases to an extent that few plays have attained.

It would seem as if "Excuse Me" must have an exceptionally wide appeal. It has novelty, too. The scenes of its comic activities are the busy cars of a railway train. The episodes of a journey provide the stirring merit.

Fritz Scheff in "Night Birds." Fritz Scheff in the comic opera, "Night Birds," will come to the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week. "Night Birds" is best described as a gay-adventure in three acts—of which the principal act, the ballroom of the second act, is not the least of the merriest, maddest scenes imaginable, but it is also one of the most scintillatingly imposing. Madame Scheff has the character of a pretty, vivacious and flirtatious maid whose escapades add to the many surprises of the plot.

AT THE GRAND.

"Mother." "Mother," which for six months was the talk of New York, will be the offering at the Grand next week, the first time in this city at less than dollar-fifty prices. It will be remembered that "Mother" was offered at the Hackett Theatre, New York, at a time when French farce, risqué musical comedy and burlesque dramas were attracting attention and by sheer force of its homely sentiment, clean and refreshing merriment, took the biased theatre-goers of the metropolis by storm, registering one of the most pronounced hits of the current season.

AT SHEA'S.

Rock and Fulton Coming. One of the most expensive bills ever seen in a vaudeville house has been booked for next week by Manager Shea of Shea's Theatre. In the headline place is William Rock and Marie Fulton, singers and dancers, who returned this season with an entirely new vehicle.

The special attractions for the week are Willa Holt Wakefield, and Frank Milton and the De Long Sisters. Included in next week's bill are Gracie Emmett and Co., Carlin and Penn, Hastings and Wilson, Ben Beyer and brother, Ellis and McKenna, and the Kinetograph.

AT THE STAR.

"The Cozy Corner Girls." Said to be loaded with real fun, the latest songs and a beautiful chorus of well-trained girls, and featuring the famous team, Crimmins and Gore, "The Cozy Corner Girls" will be the attraction at the Star next week. Quite a feature of the performance is said to be a sextet entitled "Would You Care?"

AT THE GAYETY.

Harry Hastings' Big Show. "The Harry Hastings Big Show," which comes to the Gayety Theatre next week, should prove an entertainment far above the ordinary. Harry Hastings' famous organization has been rejuvenated with entirely new faces, new acts, new costumes, new scenery and mechanical effects. The program will open with burlesque, which are brimming over, it is said, with pretty girls and laughable eccentricities.

AT MASSEY HALL.

Mendelssohn Choir. The Mendelssohn Choir, which takes place the week after next, Feb. 5, 6, 7 and 8, with an orchestral matinee on the afternoon of Feb. 8, by the Theodore Thomas Orchestra. The sale of seats to subscribers is now in progress, subscribers to $1.50 seats commencing next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The plan will open to non-subscribers and to the general public next Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at Massey Hall.

Toronto Symphony Orchestra. For his farewell performances of oratorio Dr. Torrington announces that he has engaged the following artists: Miss Elton Millett of Franklin, Pa., soprano; Mrs. Grace Carter Merry, contralto; Miss Roselle Wirthlin of New York, contralto; Even Williams of New York, tenor; Frederic Martin of New York, bass. It is advisable that those desiring to secure a choice of seats should put their names down on the subscription lists which are now in the hands of the members of the choir, at Massey Hall and at the Bell Piano Warehouses, 146 Yonge-st.

AT ASSOCIATION HALL.

Harry Phillips, Feb. 5. The fourth lecture of the series given under the auspices of the Canadian Lyceum Bureau, will be delivered on Monday, Feb. 5, at Association Hall, by Mr. Harry Phillips, ex-alderman and deputy-mayor of West Ham, London, Eng. Mr. Phillips is the president of the Dock Workers' and Coal Porters' Trade Union (which has a membership of 100,000) and speaks on social and industrial questions from the inside as one who has been in the heart of the industrial and social settlement work.

It is Criminal to Neglect the Skin and Hair

THINK of the suffering entailed by neglected skin troubles—mental because of disfigurement, physical because of pain. Think of the pleasure of a clear skin, soft, white hands, and good hair. These blessings, so essential to happiness and even success in life, are often only a matter of a little thoughtful care in the selection of effective remedial agents. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment do so much for poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little, that it is almost criminal not to use them.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a postal to "Cuticura," Dept. 5M, Boston, U.S.A., will secure a liberal sample of each, with 32-page booklet on Skin and Scalp Treatment.

CANADA'S DIVORCE LAWS MADE TO SUIT WEALTHY

Ninety-five Per Cent. of the People Barred From Release, Says Montreal K. C.

MONTREAL, Jan. 26.—(Can. Press.)—R. C. Smith, K.C., addressed the Women's Canadian Club to-day on the law as it affects women in Canada, and dealt not only with the general law, but made a carefully guarded reference to the famous No Temere decree and a more outspoken comment on the divorce question.

On the latter matter, he declared "that he considered the present law in Canada altogether unjust, since the method of obtaining divorce was such that it practically excluded 95 per cent. of the population from obtaining release, while it opened the way for the other five per cent, wealthy enough to secure special legislation."

In regard to the No Temere decree, he quoted the various clauses of the civil code dealing with marriage, some of which related to the contracting parties and others to the officers performing the ceremony.

Impediment to Marriage. On the one hand, it is contended that the proper construction of article 127 is that the impediment to marriage must be of the nature referred to in the previous clauses between contracting parties, while on the other it is argued that there can be no greater impediment to marriage than the lack of qualification in the officer solemnizing the marriage—that is, if the marriage is performed in such a manner that it will not be binding on the consciences of both contracting parties, the marriage is null and void. It is a question which must ultimately be decided by the privy council.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS NOT "BLED" BY MERCENARY INTERESTS

Considerable stir was caused by Rev. St. D. Ferguson's charge that the temperance and missionary societies exploited the Sunday schools. Various missionary and temperance societies declared that these charges were only taken up by the Sunday schools in a spirit of co-operation and as a proper part of their work.

SHREDED WHEAT

It is better than porridges for children because they have to chew it. The crispness of the shreds induces thorough mastication, which develops sound teeth. It is the best "whole wheat bread" because it contains all the rich body-building material in the whole wheat. Delicious and nourishing when served with hot milk or canned fruits.

EXIT MORGAN TREASURES

And British Public Bewail Dire Effect of Red Tape.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—(Can. Press.)—The authorities of the Victoria and Albert Museum are greatly disturbed about the withdrawal of the magnificent collection of art objects lent for many years by J. Pierpont Morgan.

The director of the museum, Sir Cecil H. Smith, is now absent and it is reported that he has gone to Egypt to attempt to persuade Mr. Morgan to reconsider his decision. In the meanwhile the curators of the museum are packing up the collection.

The newspapers to-day comment on the "British red tapeism and official shortightedness," which they hold responsible for what they describe as a national loss.
