At the Allen.

Cecil B. De Mille's special Arteraft production, "The Squaw Man" is mak-ing a decided hit with large audiences at the Allen this week. The film is a splendid production of the famous stage success, being produced on a lavish scale and having a superb cast, including Elliott Dexter, Ann Little, Theodore Roberts, Katherine Macdelighting patrons with his vocal of-ferings. Dorothy Gish, famed for her wonderful characterization of "The Little Disturber" in "Hearts of the World," has a similar role in her first Paramount offering, "Battling Jane," te with a new partner, Augusta, and Paramount offering, "Battling Jane," which is next week's attraction at the Allen. In this superb photoplay, Miss Gish has a comedy role which affords her unlimited opportunity to display
