Montreal trade reports to Bradstreet's say: General business in all lines here continues to move satisfactorily. On every hand there are still to be heard every hand there are still to be heard complaints regarding the tightness of the money market. The situation in this regard shows little or no improvement, while the need for money upon every hand is as great as it ever was. A feature of the situation that has been put forward recently is worthy of attention. At the present time there are arriving in Canada about 20,000 mmlgrants permonth. These new citizens are making great demands upon Canadian manufacturers and merchants—demands the filling of which make necessary great sums of and an excellent season's trade is looked forward to in every direction. From most parts of the country collections are fair to good, but from the west they are still slow. This fact, taken in connection with the general tightness of the money market, is the most serious factor to be considered at the moment. The volume of retail trade thruout the country does not seem to be in the least affected. In every direction there is expressed the greatest hope for the fall and winter trade and in those lines in which orders for next spring are being placed there is also cently acquitted in court-martial on the country acquitted in court-martial on the country acquitted in court-martial on the country direction. next spring are being placed there is also every evidence of confidence.
