STOCK MARKETS OF A WEEK .. Specials.. PULP MILLS FOR CANADA.

ariations in Prices of Securities in Seven Days

n the Canadian Exchanges and on Wall-Street-Pacifics and Grangers Heavy-Sugar, Tobacco and Some Other Specialties Very Prominent in the Trading-Notes

Saturday Evening, March 18.

Canadian securities have been dull and inert this week. Canadian Pacitics have had a further set-back, and this, together with talk of tighter money, has taken some of the erstwhile buoyancy out or the market, and most issues reflect net declines, 2.1 compared with last Saturday's prices. The losses have, however, not been marked, as holders of stocks do not seem anxious to liquidate. With the exception of War Eagle the listed mining issues closed the week easy.

A Strange Hallucination.

Hantsport Advocate: An elderly spinster lady of Lockhartville has recently been bereft of her reason, a greater calamity than which cannot betail a member of the human family. One hallucination she has is that a number of the members of a family, relatives of hers, are in her barn smothering under a mow of straw or hay, and she has spent some days and nights digging to rescue them.

Snow and the Trolley. Snow and the Trolley.

Some trouble was experienced yesterday in the running of cars on the Mimico line of the street railway. The high winds drifted the snow into large banks, through which it was impossible to run the trolleys, and in many cases the cars were snowbound. One car aboue 6 p.m., in attempting to get through a snow-bank, was thrown completely clear of the rails. Fortunately no person was hurt, but the car will be damaged. It will be removed to the shops for repairs to-day.

The Demon Dyspepsia—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so presessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pilis, which are ever ready for the trial.
