TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

AGE OF REBEL IN CHINA

IS SAID TO BE REBEL IN CHINA

Yet That Harmony Among the Allies Which Is Necessary to Meet the Grave Situation Is Still Deplorably Lacking.

Russia Refuses British Admiral's Request to Hand Over the Tien Tsin Railway to the English Company—London Standard Calls for Prompt Action—Japan Up-to-Date—No News as to Legations.

London, July 18.—(4 a.m.)—While evidence accumulates daily that China has long been preparing a formidable military organization in anticipation of the present conflict, and that the area of rebellion is continually extending, harmony among the allies, which is necessary to meet such a grave situation, is still deplorably lacking. The Russians have refused Admiral Seymour's request to hand over the restored Tien Tsin Railway to the English company, and it is rumored that Germany purposes taking a serious independent step, namely, to patrol the Yangtsing with German men-of-war.
Such a step would be greatly resented by England.

In Germany Grabbing, Too? Still more alarming news has been conferred to The Daily Express from Tokio to the effect that the apparent reluctance of Germany and Russia to consent to a Japanese commander for the army corps has led the Japanese Government to delay the forwarding of the division already mobilized.

What The Standard Says. The Standard, in a stern editorial, says: "It is useless any longer to hide from ourselves the fact that China has declared war on civilization, and has plunged into the conflict with the most reckless and equally futile to discuss whether the Chinese Government is in the wrong or the Chinese Government is in the right, it is an administration of some kind exists, and is directing the anti-foreign movement. Unless unmistakable evidence compelling the Chinese Government to promptly recognize the powers should treat China as a belligerent state, and act accordingly."

Germany's Course Appraised. A similar line of comment is taken by the morning papers.
All applaud the course of Count von Bismarck, German Foreign Secretary, in stopping cipher telegrams from the Chinese Legation in Berlin; and all urge the other powers to follow Germany's example.

Russia Denies It. The Russian general staff denies the report that the Chinese have captured Biogowichien, capital of the province of Anhui, and it is reported from Moscow that the Russians have taken Aigun.

A special despatch from Tien Tsin disturb the number of those killed at the capture of the native city as follows: 1,000 Russians, 100 Japanese, 50 British, 40 and Americans, 50.

Thousands of Chinese Killed. The correspondent who sends this despatch says that the fighting was still going on when his dispatch was sent in various parts of Tien Tsin. With reference to the rumors that Europeans were seen working the Chinese at Tien Tsin, The Standard insists that eight Russian soldiers, who escaped and reached the Russian lines with their hands bound.

Japanese Up to Date. A special correspondent of The Daily Express at Tien Tsin contrasts the splendid work and perfect cooperation of the Japanese with "inadequate supplies of the Japanese, German and American contingents, which are terribly lacking in the most essential necessities."

Boxer Proclamation at Shanghai. The first Boer proclamation has been issued at Shanghai. It declares that the Chinese have been killed, but there is no confirmation of the rumor from Tien Tsin.

Sir Robert Hart's Successors. The consuls at Shanghai have agreed to regard the Victory of Nankin as the chief authority, so far as the collection of revenue is concerned. When the Victory of Nankin was informed of the consular agreement, Mr. Taylor, stationed at Shanghai, has appointed a sub-inspector of customs and inspector, in succession to Sir Robert Hart.

The Story of Tien Tsin. Seven thousand allies attacked the Native City—Hot Time at Pekin Legations.

Tien Tsin, Friday, July 13, 7 a.m., via Chefoo, July 16, and Shanghai, July 18.— The battle which was begun with the attack by 7000 of the allied forces upon the walls of the native city at 2 o'clock this morning, continued all day, two battalions of the 9th Infantry participating. It is reported that 210 of this command were killed or wounded, including ten of officers. Col. E. H. Lincum was killed and Major James M. Lee and James Rogan, Captains Charles R. Noyes, Andrew Prewster and Edwin V. Bookmiller, and 1st Lieutenants William K. Naylor, Louis H.

Lewison, Harold Hammond and Ira C.
Waldron were wounded.

The Russians were outside the east wall, while the Japanese, British and French troops were close to the wall, with the Chinese trying to flank them. The walls were badly battered by shells.
The attack will be renewed in the morning.

The total losses of the allied forces are estimated at 800.

A messenger has arrived here who left Pekin July 17. The foreigners at that time were all in the British Legation.
Chinese troops were beginning to bombard the native city as follows: 1,000
and Americans, 50.

Protection for foreigners in the empire, whether they break out or not, is stated to be the Chinese's promise as a civilized state.

A letter of apology to the German Emperor for the murder of Major Ketterer, as well as a proposal for the mediation of the Chinese, good intentions, to preserve China's prestige as a civilized state.

The German and Japanese have also promised to recognize the good-will as far as possible, and expected a similar attitude by the other powers.

China Made a Proposal to Japan to Destroy European Influence in Both Countries.

London, July 18.—The Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Express asserts that he has ascertained from an unimpeachable source that when the question of an alliance between China and Japan was under consideration last autumn the Emperor Dowager sent a confidential messenger to secret proposals to the Mikado.

These proposals, says the correspondent, contained the substance of a secret treaty, having the object of destroying European and American influence in both China and Japan, the whole mass of foreigners and the division of the whole of Eastern Asia from Burma to Siberia between China and Japan. The special commissioner took a code prepared by Li Hung Chang and Sheng for secret communications between the Emperor Dowager and the Mikado.

The Japanese Emperor utterly declined to entertain the proposals.

China Is After Russia Now.

Work on the Manchurian Railway Has Been Stopped, Owing to Chinese Attacks.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—Reports have been received by the Russian general staff from the Amur district showing that the Chinese have made serious preparations there and are now concentrated on the railway line from Aigun to Saghailien, where large quantities of munitions. The Russian General, Cibaevich, has ordered the 1st division, returned to Biogowichien, capital of the Province of Amur, on Monday.

Charles is a critical phase. The serious news of the stoppage of work on the Manchurian Railway, owing to the Chinese attacks, especially at Charkia, where an attack by 400 Chinese was repulsed on July 9. Charkia is in a critical state, being cut off from the west, south and north.

Russian Sent Troops. Russian troops have been sent from different points to protect the railway. The Chinese, however, are still working on the eastern section of the line, which gives

NO TRUST IN CHINESE NEWS.

London, July 18.—It is the news of a Chinese invasion of Siberia prove true it will, of course, immensely complicate the situation from the international point of view. As stated in a St. Petersburg dispatch of July 13, the Chinese had already peremptorily ordered all Russia to quit Manchuria, and had threatened they would be audacious enough to break through the Chinese frontier and occupy Russian territory. Such an attack, if it has been made, of course constitutes in itself a complete breach of the Chinese obligation of non-interference.

Gives Russia a Chance. A separate attack on Russia means giving Russia, according to the views expressed in Europe, greater cause for an isolated success on Pekin and an additional claim to assert greater control in the Chinese Empire.

Sheng Withholding Information. The safety of the European legations at Pekin, they are not credited here. On the contrary, it is believed these assurances have been dictated by a desire to save

CANADIAN MOUNTED INFANTRY

LOST TWO LIEUTENANTS, KILLED

Boers Made a Determined Attack on Several Positions Held by the British and Broke Thru the Cordon—Lieut. Borden's Bravery.

London, July 18.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts: "Pretoria, July 17.—Yesterday the enemy made a determined attack on the left of Pole Carew's position and along our left flank commanded by Captain."

Defeated by Canadians. "The posts held by the Irish Fusiliers and the Canadian Mounted Infantry, under Lieutenant-Colonel Alderson, were most gallantly defended.

"The enemy made repeated attempts to assault the positions, but in close range and calling to the Fusiliers to close range the enemy suffered severely.

"They had 15 killed and 50 wounded, and four were taken prisoners.

Two Canadian Lieutenants Killed. "The British casualties were seven killed (including the Canadian Lieutenants, Borden and Burch), 20 wounded and 21 missionary.

"Ian Hamilton's column advanced to Waterloo yesterday unopposed, and to-day proceeded to Hamans's Kraal.

Boers Break Thru the Cordon. "Fifteen hundred Boers, with five guns, managed to break thru the cordon formed by Hunter's and Bunde's divisions between Bethlehem and Ficksburg. They were making towards Lindley, closely followed by Paquet's and Broadwood's Regiments."

How the Lieutenants Were Killed. In a despatch dated to-day, Lord Roberts pays a tribute to Lieutenants Borden and Burch. He says: "They were killed while gallantly leading their men in the counter attack on the enemy's flank at a critical juncture of their assault on one position."

Reported Twice Before. "Borden was twice before brought to my notice in despatches for gallant and intrepid conduct."

POWLEY'S FEARFUL DEATH.

Electric Current of 2200 Volts Took Away His Life in the Carbonum Works.

HE PUT HIS HAND ON A SHELF.

Disentangled "Oh" and Was Dead in an Instant—Another Niagara Falls Sensation.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 18.—William Powley, locomotive driver, G.T.R. yards here, fell yesterday afternoon, where he was working, and went into the Canadian branch of the Carbonium works, situated on Buttery avenue, north of the G.T.R. yards, to get a drink of water at 2.45 o'clock this afternoon. He entered the works in the main building after getting a drink of water. He passed out the furnace room, where two men, James Copple and Charles Hatt, were busy attending to the furnaces. Powley stopped to speak to Hatt, whom he was acquainted with, and then he placed his hand on a wooden bracket shelf, on which stood the metallic vat holding the water choclat.

The 2200 Volt Current. No sooner did Powley place his hand on the shelf than the 2200 volt current drew him up and killed him instantly.
The men heard him cry "Oh," and ran to his assistance. Powley's hand was knocked off the shelf, but he was not killed. The men worked hard to rescue the man, but to no avail. The hand badly roasted and the finger and palm were lost.

What the Rheostat Is. The rheostat is a metallic vat two feet across the top, and three feet deep, partly filled with salt water, in which one end of a wire is attached. The other end is attached to the metallic vat forming a current thru the water. This is necessary to reduce the current for the furnace purposes thru the switches. The vat sat on a wooden bracket shelf on the wall about six feet from the ground. The shelf was covered with carbon dust, which had accumulated there. Powley's hand was knocked against the shelf, and he was killed. The doctor says death was instan-taneous. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and four small children, and was 38 years of age.

THE 168-DAY SESSION

HAS BEEN PROLOGUED

Three Thousand People Attended to See the Governor-General in Royal State and the Military Pageant.

The Block Between the Senate and the Commons Has Been Bridged Over—All Signs of Friction Wiped Out—The Governor's Speech.

Ottawa, July 18.—(Special.)—This afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the House proceeed, after a 168-day session. There was a small gathering of Ottawa society in the Senate when His Excellency Lord Minto read his speech, but outside, in front of the main entrance to the House, fully ten persons were gathered to see the red-coated Governor-General's Foot Guards and the mounted, lance-holding, bracebeamed Princes, Louise Dragons. The squad, headed by the guard's march, marched up the hill at 3 o'clock, fifteen minutes later the Governor-General and suite appeared, and a royal salute was given with a flourish. The band played "God Save the Queen," and the function of prostration was begun by the ring of the Senate, were considered by the commons.

The Election Act. The House of Commons met this morning, but did nothing. This afternoon the amendments to the Election Act, made by the Senate, were considered by the commons. The Senate had in the morning killed the Election Act, because the Commons refused to concur in the P.E.I. amendments. But between 1 and 2 o'clock, Sir Macdougall, Howell and Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick had had a conference, and the Senate agreed to pass the Election Act, provided that the N.W.T. amendment were accepted and the amendments by P.E.I. were incorporated in the Dominion Controversy Bill. The House of Commons, Mr. Fitzpatrick introduced a bill at 2.15 to amend the controversy Elections Act, providing for a scrutiny of ballots by a Superior Court judge within 20 days of the election. The Commons agreed to this. The bill was read a third time and passed. The Senate concurred in it, and all signs of friction between the two Houses were wiped out, when it was announced that the Quebec judges bill was killed.

Then, at the bidding of Black Rod, the Commons assembled in the Senate, where the military pageant, headed by His Excellency, greeted their gaze. In both languages Lord Minto read the following speech from the Throne:

"Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons: In relieving you from further atten-dence in Parliament, I desire to thank you for the diligent attention which you have given to the history of an exceptionally profitable session. When Parliament opened in the month of February last the thoughts of the whole Empire were centered on the war which was then raging in South Africa.

"The marked success which has since attended the British arms, and in which our Canadian volunteers soldiered bravely, has been a conspicuous and glorious part of the history of the war, and will be soon restored in that distant land.

"The large number of private bills with industrial objects considered and passed is a good indication of the great expansion of the business of the country since the outbreak of the war.

"I desire to congratulate you on the brilliant success of the session, and to express my confidence that the large receipts have enabled my Government to provide liberally for the public service and to maintain Canada's strong financial position.

"The improvement of the relation between the Senate and the Commons has been a feature of the session, and will be a permanent benefit to the country, which must be maintained.

"The extension of the British preference in our tariff will tend to reduce the burden of taxation and stimulate growth of every trade with the Mother Country.

"The measure you have passed respecting the admission of the Dominion into the list of securities, which I trust will be a permanent benefit to the country, and will also promote the condition of the industrial classes, and will also promote the relation between the Senate and the Commons.

"There is reason to believe that the legislation of this session will have important and favorable results. I particularly congratulate you upon the passing of the Conciliation Act, which, it is generally held, will not only improve the condition of the industrial classes, but will also promote the relation between the Senate and the Commons.

"The assembly rose at Lord Minto went out to his carriage at the main Commons entrance, and the military pageant, headed by the Governor-General, followed in procession, the band played, prostration was consummated.

CONFIDENCE IS RESTORED

And New Capital Can Safely Go Into British Columbia, Says Hon.
Fred Peters.

PRaise for Premier DUNSMUIR.

Labor Troubles Have Passed Except for the Little Trouble Among Fishermen.

Montreal, July 18.—(Special.)—"Confidence is already restored to a considerable extent, and new capital can come into the province and the development of the legislation seriously interfering with the country's development."

This statement was made today by Hon. Fred Peters of Victoria, who is on his way to Prince Edward Island.

The ex-Premier of Prince Edward Island says he does not intend to resign his seat in the Legislature, as his constituents asked him to stay, but he will retire from public life at the expiration of the parliamentary term.

Mr. Peters speaks in the highest praise of Premier Dunsmuir and his colleagues, and says that the new administration will be a model one. The Prime Minister, he adds, kept his attitude, pledge to discharge all the duties of his office, and that labor troubles are a thing of the past, except some little difficulties between the provincials and the developing west of the province, and that the fisheries are wanting 25 cents a fish, while the canneries at 20 cents a fish, cannot give more than 15 cents a fish.

Mr. Peters says that Cape Nome has proved a failure, and that the development of the province is a failure. He adds that the province is a failure, and that the province is a failure.
