

The following pupils were present every Sabbath during the year, and are entitled to the school prize:—Bertie Matthewman, Lizzie Savage, Rosan Strachan, Eva Stalker, Kate Foley, Albert Atcheson, Willie Buchanan, Herbert Macmillan, Forester McKinnon, Calvin Richard, and Charles Atcheson; while Milton Atcheson and John Cummings missed only one Sabbath. This is very creditable and gratifying, being the largest number in the history of the school.

This year Miss Dewar's class has won the Superintendent's prize for regular attendance, with the very high average of over 98 per cent. Miss Masson's class—the winners of this prize for five years in succession—averaged 95½ per cent.; Mr. D. Masson's, 94½ per cent., and Mr. Savage's over 94 per cent.

Mr. Blackburn's prize for accurate Scripture recitation has been won by Josephine Dickson, who recited the Second Epistle of Peter without a single mistake.

John Cummings, Robert Dobier, Garden Taylor, Connie Alexander, Eva DeLisle, Ethel Harrington, and Eva Stalker, are entitled to Rev. Mr. Farries' prize for repeating correctly half the questions in the Shorter Catechism.

Mr. Robinson's prizes to the members of the Infant Class who should repeat correctly the Golden Texts of the lessons for six months, were won by Agnes Renwick, George E. Bingham, Matthew Ashe, Hilda J. Christie, and Lawrence F. Christie. George E. Alexander and Willie Laing are entitled to prizes for repeating the Golden Texts for the last three months.

No one has succeeded in winning Mr. Mutchmor's prize for introducing new scholars.

During the year the pupils were requested to return their Sunday School paper, after having read them, in order that they might be sent to Mission Stations where Sunday reading-matter is scarce. Many were returned and distributed. In this way we have endeavored to cultivate the missionary spirit of the pupils, and to benefit and gladden many homes by a gift which cost us little more than the exercise of some energy and thought.

The Teachers' prayer meeting has been continued throughout the year.

In conclusion, we would desire to enlist more fully the sympathies and co-operation of the Congregation, so that, with God's blessing resting on us, and His hand guiding and supporting us, we may be enabled to extend the influence of our school, and make it a power in leading the young to Christ.

J. McJANET,

Secretary.

J. MACMILLAN,

Superintendent.