

COMPETENT HELP....

When business men engage office help they want some person who will grasp their ideas and methods quickly. Our pupils are drilled in a practical manner, hence they take hold of things readily and make desirable assistants. We have a few students who have been trained in business and shorthand whom we can recommend. Forest City Business and Shorthand College, London, Ont.

—Mr. Fred C. Godley, of Leamington, has taken a situation here.

—Mrs. Hutchinson, Metcalfe street, St. Thomas, is visiting friends in this city.

—Mrs. Alfred R. Plummer, of Peterborough, is here attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. C. Read.

—Mr. David F. Thomson, of Texas, who has been visiting his mother on York street, has left for home.

—Mr. Lewis Jagoe, general passenger agent of the West Shore and New York Central Railroad Company, is in the city.

—Mr. M. F. Irwin has left on an extended trip through British Columbia and Manitoba in the interests of the McClary Manufacturing Company, of this city.

—At St. Paul's Cathedral tomorrow the collections morning and evening will be for the benefit of the choir boys. A liberal response is expected from an appreciative congregation.

—Mr. Ernest Yeates, of this city, son of Mr. W. Yeates, has been successful in passing his final examination at the School of Practical Science, Toronto. He took honors in all subjects of the course.

—The anniversary tea meeting of the Southern Congregational Church will be held Monday evening. Tea will be served at 6:30, and will be followed by an excellent musical and literary programme.

—The Michigan Central Railroad will run an excursion to Detroit for the Woodmen of the World on Queen's Birthday, good for two days, first-class coaches, fast run. A pleasant time, as usual, is expected.

—Mr. William Douglas, formerly a book-keeper in the street railway offices, arrived here last night from California, where he has spent several months for the benefit of his health. He is much improved.

—Government Inspector Thos. Ridout, of Ottawa, was here yesterday examining the new interlocking switch put in at the Rectory street crossing of the street railway. C. T. R. Inspector Patton, of Toronto, is also here.

—Toronto has started a splendid new Turkish bath establishment. At one time the idea prevailed of establishing Turkish baths in London, and also piping the water from the Sulphur Springs at the foot of Dundas street. There would be money in it.

—The amount realized from the late performance on behalf of the Children's Aid Society was $144.86. The management of the society desire to return their thanks to all who took part, and thus contributed to the success of the entertainment.

—Very large audiences are following the course of sermons in King Street

Presbyterian Church every Sunday evening on "Some Things From Genesis." Chairs have to be used every evening. "The Flood" was Local or Universal?" will be the subject tomorrow evening.

—The London Presbyterian will meet for business in Knox Church, Dutton, on Tuesday morning. A conference of young people's societies will be held on Monday in the same place, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Arrangements have been made to have the noon express from St. Thomas stop at Dutton for the convenience of members from the north and east.

—On Monday evening next the St. Thomas Dramatic Company, assisted by Miss Broncho McEwen, will present at the Grand Opera House here the well-known Irish drama "Kerry Gow," under the auspices of the London Catholic Club. Mr. Joe Butler, in the title role of Kerry Gow, proves himself to be a fully equal to the occasion, and Miss McEwen, as Nora, has cleverly acted the part.

HUMOR CURE

For All Who Suffer from Skin and Scalp
Humors.

To successfully treat torturing and disgusting humors of the blood, skin, and scalp, with loss of hair, requires a humor cure, and such is CUTICURA RESOLVENT, greatest of blood purifiers and humor expelling remedies.

Cuticura Resolvent

Extends its purifying influence by means of the pores to the surface of the skin, allaying irritation, inflammation, itching, and burning, and soothing and healing external humors, because of its power to neutralize humor-germs which float in the blood and circulating fluids. Hence its success in the treatment of distressing humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, which fail to be permanently cured by external remedies alone.

Cuticura Resolvent

Exerts a gentle but constant influence upon the bowels, liver, and kidneys, purifying the fluids of these organs, and maintaining them in a normal condition of health, thus removing a common cause of yellow, mothy, greasy skin, and more or less of pimples, blotches, and blackheads.

Cuticura Resolvent

Used on every occasion possible, with CUTICURA (ointment) and CUTICURA SOAP, externally, is the readiest means of insuring a speedy, permanent, and economical cure, and realizing that greatest of human blessings, "a skin without blemish and a body nourished with pure blood."

Sold every where. Price, 50c. and $1.00. Prepaid D. A. C. Co., Sole Trade, Boston. "Merck's Care Hamon," THE CUTICURA SOAP.
