SWITCHMEN MAY TIE UP THE ROADS

Deliver Ultimatum as to Wage Increase and May Walk Out Wednesday.

Chicago, Nov. 5 .- Every railroad in the United States is threatened with a strike on Wednedsay next that may greatly discommode traffic all over the country, if it does not result more seriously. By a referendum vote that carried with the necessary two-thirds majority, the Switchmen's Union has decided to go out at 6 o'clock that day if the ultimatum presented to the railroads today is not accepted by that time. The union men claim that 95 per cent of all the switchmen in the United States are members of their organization. Three meetings of the switchmen's committee for Michigan have been held with the railroad superintendents in Detroit within the past fifteen days, but a settlement seems to be still far

The general managers of the leading roads throughout the country held a secret meeting in this city Oct. 25, and came to a mutual agreement as to their course of action, but their decision has been successfully kept a secret. The superintendents of the Michigan lines have not yet made known their decision. hour pay, but later abandoned the Friday, Nov. 8 and 9. eight-hour day demand, and offered a second proposition demanding a flat Giles, which took place on Sunday afraise of 10 cents an hour for all switchmen. The ultimatum of the men is Point Edward, was conducted by the being presented by the chairman of the officers and members of Sarnia Tent, grievance committee of the yards on No. 1, K. O. T. M., of which society the different lines who constitute the deceased was a much esteemed mem-advisory board. F. T. Hawley will send the strike McCleister, John L. Knauff. S. Burorder out from headquarters here if the ley, M. A. Hitchcock, John Ennis, strike is to be called. Peterboro Man Threatens Girl Who Turns Down Suit and Is Jailed.

Peterboro, Nov. 5.-For threatening to blow out his sweetheart's brains, to himself, Thomas Welle, an Englishman, who has spent almost two years in Canada, was sentenced yesterday by Magistrate Edmison to 30 days in fail. Weller has become so infatuated with his sweetheart, Miss Annie Coon, a respectable young Peterboro girl, who has not returned his love, that he determined to get revenge or compel her to marry him. The young lady, hearing of his intentions, left the city and went to stay with her aunt, where she thought she would be safe. On Friday night, however, Weller. with a loaded revolver, drove out and into the barrel of the gun. He threatened to kill her if she did not tell where Miss Conn was. Mr. Wright in the meantime hurried to Lakefield and returned with the constable, who ar rested Weller. He received his trial on Saturday afternoon and is at present in jail here. He stated in the witness box that if he has to spend ten years in jail he will have the life of his former sweet-
