OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

A LOVER'S ENVY.

I envy every flower that blows
Beside the pathway where she goes,
And every bird that sings to her,
And every breeze that brings to her
The fragrance of the rose.

I envy every poet's rhyme
That moves her heart at eventime,
And every tree that wears for her
Its highest bloom, and bears for her
The fruitage of its prime.

I envy every Southern night
That paves her path with moonbeams white,
And silvers all the leaves for her,
And in their shadow weaves for her
A dream of dear delight.

I envy none whose love requires
Of her a gift, a task that tries;
I only long to live with her,
I only ask to give to her
All that her heart desires.

—Henry van Dyke in The Century.

Anglican W. A.

The Anglican Women's Auxiliary held their monthly meeting yesterday with Mrs. Filley presiding. The meeting was opened by a brief speech from Rev. C. E. Sharp, who paid great tribute to the good work that has been accomplished by the auxiliary.
The corresponding secretary then reported that two new branches had been opened, one at Harwood, near Gore's Landing, and the other a local girls branch, and also that one new life member had joined.

The treasurer then made the monthly statement, which showed receipts to be $1172.76 and expenses $765.64. A motion was then carried to increase the salaries of the matrons in the northwest schools. After which the E. C.
D. receipts were given as $255.58.

The P.M.C. receipts were then given as $255.75. This will be sent to the synod and from there distributed among the various missions. The meeting then closed by a resolution of congratulation to the new bishop-elect.

McKENDRY'S, Limited

An EXPLANATION
and an OCCASION

The Explanation

Those who have been following the policy of this store in the past will know that it keeps abreast of all modern ideas and requirements in the millinery business.

Our Spring Opening in the ordinary course of events was booked for this week. For months our big staff of milliners and designers had been faithfully working toward that end.

The fire on our premises has meant not only a large cash loss but a loss through the upsetting of our well laid plans.

However, we are spending thousands of dollars upon the refitting and redecorating of the store so that when it is finished we will present to our customers one of the best equipped and most modern millinery parlors on the continent of America.

Workmen are working day and night shifts, and we hope to be ready by the 15th.

Every dollar's worth of goods in the store will be brand new and we hope to make a record from every viewpoint.

The Occasion

On the second floor, which has been newly re-decorated and re-fitted, to-morrow we are going to offer a particularly tempting bargain.

300 brand new copies of Paris models, equal in every respect to the originals, embracing the most up-to-date styles and including the newest Jet Turbans. These hats have been re-fitted, to-morrow we are going to offer a particularly tempting bargain.

Ends His Life.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Despondent owing to ill health and the collapse of a number of his financial and industrial undertakings, Frank C. Hollins, aged 60, a brother-in-law of H. B. Hollins, banker, committed suicide to-day by inhaling illuminating gas.

An estate of $25,533 was left by the late William Thompson Chambers Keeler, contractor. The realty totals $25,950. The widow, Mrs. Mary Matilda Keeler, 992 Givens-street, receives a life income for the support of herself and the children at home. On her death the property is divided among her two sons, John and Frederick, and two daughters, Florence and Grace.

A hundred volumes of a semi-medical work have been seized at the customs in Toronto, pending a ruling from Ottawa as to whether the book is obscene.
