When the Liver gets sluggish—when the Blood becomes laden with impurities—and that miserable dragged out feeling comes over one—then it's time to go back to Nature for the remedy and take at Passakeag yesterday by Detective Duncan, charged with the theft of horse and wagon, the property of John Glynn and valued at $150. The police say that the rig has been sold but the orse has been recovered.

Half a dozon offenders, who have been sentenced to short terms in the county, jail, were given an opportunity on Wednesday to attain their liberty on condition that they do something for their country. They immediately volunteered to become members of a crew of a stea-mer in port and were allowed their free-

The largest registration of pupils re corded in many years was announced last evening at the quarterly meeting of the Sunday school teachers of the Germain street Baptist church. The average attendance for the quarter ending last Sunday was 231 out of a total enrollment of 400. Several other reports were submitted and all were satisfactory.

A concert and pie social given Wednesday evening by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Methodist church at Sea Dog Come, Summerville, netted $35.10. The amount will be used for church purposes. Those taking part were Miss Eva Spencer, Jean Hughes, H. Hughes, William Hughes, Effie Puddington, Mabel Miller, Mrs. McColgan, W. Spencer, William Gamble, Thomas Birlon, Joseph Sleep and Albert Sleep.

tion of the navy (says the London cor-Feb. 22 at Fairville, which resulted in respondent of the Manchester Guardian) the death of C. P. R. Engineer Justus G. as "Jackets." The name came about in the death of C. P. R. Engineer Justus G. Cheesman, was caused by five freight cars not being properly secured on the siding, due to defective brakes and lack of experience of the brakeman in charge, was the substance of the verdict of the coroner's jury which, in the court house last evening, listened to the evidence of witnesses of the accident. The hearing was conducted by Dr. W. F. Roberts, coroner, the jury consisting of B. Fowler, foreman, and J. J. Irvine, F. McLean, F. H. Probate, Geo. Currie, W. L. Walsh and P. S. Cosgrove.

H. Probate, Geo. Currie, W. L. Walsh and P. S. Cosgrove.

Those who testified at the inquest were: Conductor Michael M. Sullivan, Brakeman Walter F. O'Leary, Dr. J. H. Allingham, Dr. F. L. Kenney, Edward Kane, locomotive engineer; Francis J. Quilay, fireman; Andrew A. Lyon, fireman, and David H. Ryan, assistant superintendent of the C. P. R., New Brunswick division.
