INSANE JEALOUSY
CAUSE OF TRAGEDY
DURING AUTO TRIP

Chauffeur Reported to Be Infatuated with Employer

Attentions Ignored — Dead Woman Seen by Residents to Be in Good Spirits During Afternoon's Motor Ride.

Mytic, Conn., July 16.—"Murder and revenge due to insane jealousy," is the conclusion announced by Coroner William S. Gray, following his investigation of the shooting of Mrs. Arthur De Cordova, wife of a New York banker, and Bernard Geisler, her chauffeur. They were found on an automobile road leading to Stonington, Mrs. De Cordova shot through the heart, while Geisler, unconscious from a bullet through his head, was carried across a barbed wire fence fifty feet away. He died in hospital.

Stories of summer residents, who told of Geisler showing what appeared to be an infatuation for Mrs. De Cordova, who was apparently ignored it, reached Coroner Gray during his inquiry.

Dr. Gray said that Mrs. De Cordova apparently left the Hotel Griswold, near New London, where she was living for the summer with her two grown children, to take some clothing to a laundry. The bundle was found in the automobile by the police.

She left the hotel at about 2 o'clock in an expensive sport automobile driven by Geisler, who had been employed by the De Cordovas for about five years.
Instead of going direct to the laundry, Mrs. De Cordova drove all afternoon through the country roads and the colonial section of New London. She was sitting beside Geisler on the front seat of the car. It was a three-seater machine, with "runners" seat in back for a third passenger. She appeared to be in good spirits.

Several witnesses noticed Mrs. De Cordova talking and laughing with Geisler and the last persons known to have seen her alive, the family of James Main, a farmer, said she waved her hand to them as she passed their home.

A few minutes later shots were heard and only a short time elapsed before James F. Brown, residing at a laundry, saw the automobile on the road.

LIPTON RIGHT TO TAKE THE RACE

New York Papers Say Baronet Justified

Begin to Fear Resolute Not Stout Enough for Heavy Weather Test — Repairs Well Under Way for Tomorrow.

(Canadian Press.)
New York, July 16.—While expressing regret at the accident to the Resolute in yesterday's race, the New York papers this morning are practically unanimous in declaring that it was "part of the game" and that Thomas Lipton was perfectly justified in accepting the victory which the faster handed to him.

Doubt as expressed as to whether the construction of the Resolute is sufficiently staunch to stand the heavy strain which a taste of real rough weather would place upon her and it is recalled that the contest must not be conducted on the Resolute's own terms. Her speed and seamanship alone, but of strength of construction as well.

A new metal get was to be slung on the Resolute, and Captain Charles Francis Adams, the cup yacht skipper, on the Resolute, expressed the opinion that the Lipton challenger cannot lift the cup.

The Shamrock's crew were happy to board the tender Kilmory while Shamrock's Captain, George Herschel, congratulated him on board his steam yacht. The Shamrock's crew were happy to board the tender Kilmory while Shamrock's Captain, George Her-
yacht.

It is contended, however, that yesterday's race has demonstrated that the Resolute possesses better weather qualities and that in the light air she is several minutes faster up the water than Shamrock IV. It has on such a point of sailing and under such conditions that the challenger was thought to be superior.

The two yachts have yet to test their relative abilities down the breeze or broad of wind where reaching sail is expected to come tomorrow in a thirty mile race over a triangular course.

It was also anticipated today that Designer Nicholson and Captain Burton of Shamrock IV, would endeavor to obtain a remeasurement of the challenger in the hope of still further reducing the handicap time allowance, since it has been explained that the challenger is using a much smaller club topsail than was included in the original measurement of the New York Yacht Club officers.

On The Other Side.
Belfast, July 16.—News that the Shamrock IV had won the first race against the Resolute in the series for the America's Cup was received amid joyous scenes at Bangor. Down, last night, because in the morning the victory of St. Thomas Lipton's yacht future race would occur there.

Several by-law cases were before the police court this morning. Norman Sancton was reported for not stopping of King street on July 14. Policeman Colwell said that the accused was behind three cars and dodged out around and went down Prince William street when he should have waited for a signal. A fine of $10 was imposed.
