DYKEMAN'S

The many thousands of yards of exquisite

Lawn Embroideries

that are now on sale at our store are the nicest collection and the lowest prices that this store has ever shown. They are direct from the embroiderers in St. Gall, Switzerland. We bought them from the same manufacturers that the wholesale jobbing houses get their embroideries from, so that we can sell them at wholesale prices. We had to buy them in large quantities in order to get these close figures and that is why the people are taking such an interest in this sale and buy a quantity to supply their wants for the year.

4, 5 and 6 cents for 2, 3 and 4 inch Hamburgs with nice fine work is not a common thing to find.

Lots of 27 inch Flouncings and Embroideries for children's dresses, at 33, 39, 45 and 49 cents a yard.

Lots of 45 inch fine Lawn Embroideries for skirts, at 55, 59, 65 and 69 cents a yard. Four and five patterns in each price.

Very attractive fine Lawn Corset Cover Embroideries, at 19, 20, 26 and up to 50 cents a yard.

NEPHEW OF ST. ANDREWS PEOPLE BURIED SIXTY FEET BY AVALANCHE

Edward C. Treadwell Meets Death in Slide in Northern California

That Edward C. Treadwell, son of James Treadwell, and superintendent of the Trinity Center Bonanza King mine in Northern California, was swept to his death on Jan. 14 by an avalanche of snow that had threatened down the mountain side at night, was distressing news that reached St. Andrews on Monday.

With a miner named Williams, Mr. Treadwell was trying to get a refractory horse in the barn, when the avalanche descended upon them, carrying men and horse 400 feet to the bottom of the canon. Both men perished, but the horse, strange to say, was not hurt. Williams' body was recovered on the following day, but that of Treadwell was not found for four days. It was buried sixty feet in the snow. Forty men were engaged in the search.

Edward C. Treadwell was born in San Francisco thirty-seven years ago. He was a graduate of the University of California and had been superintendent of this mine for less than a year.

Nathan Treadwell and James Stoop, St. Andrews, are uncle and aunt of the deceased.

LOCAL NEWS

PROVINCIAL CONSTABLE.

George H. Prosser of Parkdale, Albert county, has been appointed a provincial constable.

SEAMEN'S CONCERT.

The concert party of the Allan liner Hesperian and the Donatien liner Cassandra gave a very enjoyable entertainment in the Seaman's Institute last night. Mr. Foss of the Hesperian presided. Among those taking part were Messrs. Colver and Mauchline. There was a large attendance.

THE DRUGGISTS.

The report of E. R. W. Ingraham, registrar, to the provincial government shows that there are at present ninety-five druggists who are properly qualified and have paid the annual fee in order to conduct drug businesses in the province. Thirty-six of these are in St. John. There are also fifty-four holding society certificates, but are not in business for themselves.

MURRAY STREET TO HAVE KINDERGARTEN

This Will Relieve Portland Street Press—Miss Maxwell Resigns

At the monthly meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association, held at the home of the president, Miss F. E. Holman, it was decided to extend the kindergarten in the Murray street Mission building, which has been given free of rent. Miss Zella Maxwell, who has been in charge, with Miss Kate Doherty as assistant. Also the latter will enter the training class conducted by Mrs. W. C. Matthews, the supervisor of kindergartens. The opening of this school will relieve the Portland street kindergarten, which has been taxed to its utmost, and has had to refuse many children, much to the regret of Miss Stevens, who is in charge.

The association regret very much the resignation of Miss Zella Maxwell, who has been with them four years, and is a graduate of the training class. She will enter the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, to train for nurse and will afterwards take up children's work in the same line. The association are talking of holding a child's welfare exhibition in St. John this fall.

Donations this month were as follows: Mrs. Brown, clothing; Mrs. Davidson, clothing; Miss Shaw, clothing; Miss Shaw, meat and bread; Beaulieu street church, brown bread; Mrs. John Parks, mittens; Miss Coates, mittens; Portland Street Young Ladies' Bible class, cake and biscuit; St. Andrew's church Beneficent Society, clothing.

LAKE ERIE IN PORT

Empress Expected at Halifax Tonight With 1,259 Passengers

The Allan liner Lake Erie, Captain Carey, arrived in port this morning at seven o'clock and docked a little after eight o'clock at No. 6 extension berth. She had on board 192 passengers—eighty-two men and 110 women. Captain Carey reports having a very good passage, with but a little stormy weather at Christmas time. The Erie left Havre on Christmas Day and came to St. John via London. She had not a heavy cargo. The passengers were landed this morning and most of them went through to the West.

The C. P. R. liner Empress of Ireland is expected to land at Halifax this evening and is due to arrive here tomorrow afternoon or evening. She is bringing aboard a record number of passengers, 120 cabin, 300 second cabin and 790 steerage. She has also on board a big cargo.

The C. P. R. liner Montrose will sail this evening for London and Antwerp with large cargo and a few passengers.

The S. S. Manchester Inventor is due to arrive here tonight from Manchester via Halifax.

The Head liner Bray Head arrived at Sydney this week on her way to this port.

GAVE WRONG NAME

Hodd Said He Was Stevens—Another Charge Against Him

Four prisoners were arraigned in the police court this morning. Scott Fanjoy, charged with assaulting his wife, was remanded. Three prisoners charged with drunkenness, were remanded. One of the three gave his name as Harry Stevens, but in the court this morning he acknowledged that his name was Walter Hodd. After he was remanded to jail Detective Kilan placed another charge against him, that of stealing a watch yesterday afternoon from John Hayes. The prisoner was arrested some months ago and at that time was allowed out on suspended sentence. He will probably be brought before the court tomorrow morning.

THRONED FOR THE INSTALLATION AND TO HEAR MR. THOMAS

Interesting Ceremony for Foresters Last Evening—Officers of Ouanogody and Martello

A very large gathering assembled in the Temple Building on Wednesday evening to witness the installation of the officers of Court Ouanogody. Also it was the first visit of the supreme orator, Rev. B. H. Thomas to this court. The building was taxed to its capacity, in fact many failed to secure seats.

The ceremony was conducted by D. G. Longley, P. M. C. R., assisted by M. E. Grass, H. V. C. R., R. J. Todd, D. S. C. R., acting H. M.; O. A. Crawford, H. M.; Rev. B. H. Thomas, V. C. R.; Mrs. C. E. Belyea, H. T. F. W. Brewster, H. S.

The royal escort from St. John and Brunswick Encampments were in full regalia. The scene at the pedestal during the obligation of the officers and the installing of the chief ranger when the arch of steel was formed, was most favorably commented on.

The ceremony was followed by an excellent programme consisting of the following numbers: Address, Rev. B. H. Thomas, S. O.; violin solo, Master Bruce Holdrege; address, D. G. Longley, P. M. C. R.; solo, Master Grassville Ring; address, M. E. Grass, H. V. C. R.; recitation, Miss Celia Parlier; address, E. Todd, D. S. C. R.; solo, Miss B. Campbell; address, F. W. Brewster, D. S. C. R.; recitation, Roy Harding.

Mr. Thomas expressed great pleasure in the hearty welcome that he had received and the excellent growth of the order in St. John which was fully in keeping with the times. He took up the different phases of the order. Fraternity is the ritual and the injunction given in the obligation were in plain English of the highest order. Bringing out of men and women all that was bright and good, it taught them to be thoughtful of the future for the days when they were sorrow and trouble would multiply and life would slip away. But they were wise who made provision against that day.

Brotherhood and indissolubility were given in the I. O. F. in the best sense. The speaker dwelt on the excellent work being done in the sanitarium and the orphan's home and in the homes of the widows and fatherless children. Much of this had been the work of the present C. R. Hon. Eldon G. Stevenson, to whom the speaker paid the highest tribute of commendation.

Mr. Thomas' speech was listened to with close attention and at the close he received great applause. The following officers were installed:

Lester W. Mowry—C. R.
Capt. P. B. Belyea—V. C. R.
K. Deane—D. S. C. R.
J. U. Brooks—F. S.
W. F. Cronk—D. S. C. R.
Roy Harding—Orator
R. B. Brittain—S. W.
H. W. Bond—J. W.
B. Deane—P. B.
F. W. Shaw—J. B.
G. E. Chase—D. S. C. R.
W. F. Roberts—Court Physician.

At the close, refreshments were served and a social hour spent.

Chief Martello.

On Tuesday evening the officers of Court Martello were installed for 1913 by the High Vice Chief Ranger, M. E. Grass, of the order, which had refreshments and a few words in connection with the good and welfare of the order. The officers are: Chief Ranger—Dr. E. N. Davis; Vice Chief Ranger—H. A. Leonard; R. Secretary—J. MacLae; S. Secretary—C. A. Clark; Treasurer—J. S. Flagler; Orator—J. J. Armstrong; H. Woodard—Chas. E. Macmillan; J. Woodard—W. L. Wran; S. Beadle—Chas. E. Richardson; Beadle—John Bond; C. D. H. C. R.—Chas. E. Macmillan; Physician—Dr. G. A. B. Addy and Dr. Wm. S. Morrison; Trustees—H. A. Leonard and P. Strain; Fin. and Aud. Com.—J. Malcolm and T. H. Belyea; Central Com.—E. N. Davis and H. A. Leonard.

WILL HAVE FREE RINK IN CARLETON

Commissioner Wigmore Arranges for Flooding Plot Near Methodist Church

Commissioner Wigmore is busy answering inquiries concerning skating rinks. In other years rinks have been provided in different parts of the city, the aldermen making them possible by having water supplied from the city mains. Formerly the rink at the foot of Broad street was the King Edward school, has been available for rink purposes. This season the vacant city property at the foot of Broad street has been flooded and the young people of that part of the city have greatly enjoyed the pastime this made possible.

Another rink that will receive city aid in the way of water will be situated on the grounds of the Carleton Methodist church. This plot of ground has been prepared for flooding and as soon as the weather permits the water will be supplied by the city water department.

Perhaps the best outdoor sheet of ice in the city this year has been that on the old mill dam near Victoria street. The city water and sewerage department is also responsible for this being available for the enjoyment of the people of the North End. This body of water was caused by the damming of the Newman Brook in order to supply the Indiantown mill.

Last season the gates in the dam were removed as it was feared that they might be damaged and the ice surface was limited. This year the water and sewerage department assumed the responsibility of looking after the gate and the ice surface of the water back of the dam was opened to the public. The result has been entirely satisfactory to the young people of the North End who have greatly enjoyed the good ice provided.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Power took place this morning from her late home in Simonds street. The body was taken to St. Peter's church where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. Holland, C. S. R. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

EIGHT LODGERS.

No less than eight foreigners applied for and were given protection in the central police station last night.
